DALLAS, TEXAS - FEBRUARY 2, 2021 - 9:38 A.M.

THE COURT: Good morning. Please be seated. All right. We are ready to get started now in Highland Capital. We have a confirmation hearing as well as a motion to assume the non-residential real property lease at the headquarters. All right. This is Case No. 19-34054. I know we're going to have a lot of appearances today. I think we're just down to a handful of objections, but I'm nevertheless going to go ahead and get formal appearances from our key parties that we've had historically in this case.

First, for the Debtor team, do we have Mr. Pomerantz and your crew?

MR. POMERANTZ: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor. Jeff Pomerantz, along with John Morris, Ira Kharasch, and Greg Demo, on behalf of the Debtor-in-Possession, Highland Capital.

THE COURT: All right. Good morning. All right. For the Unsecured Creditors' Committee team, do we have Mr. Clemente and others?

MR. CLEMENTE: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor.

Matthew Clements; Sidley Austin; on behalf of the Official

Committee of Unsecured Creditors.

THE COURT: All right. I'm actually going to call a roll call for the Committee members who have obviously been very active during this case. For the Redeemer Committee and Crusader Fund, do we have Ms. Mascherin and her team?

(Pause.) Okay. We're -- if -- you must be on mute.
2
             MS. MASCHERIN: Your Honor, I apologize.
 3
              THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.
4
             MS. MASCHERIN: I apologize, Your Honor. I was on
    mute and could not figure out how to unmute myself quickly.
6
    Terri Mascherin; Jenner & Block; on behalf of the Redeemer
7 Committee.
8
              THE COURT: All right. Good morning.
        All right. What about Acis? Do we have Ms. Patel and others for the Acis team?
11
             MS. PATEL: Good morning, Your Honor. Rakhee Patel 12 on behalf of Acis Capital Management.
13
              THE COURT: Good morning.
        All right. Mr. Clubok, I see you there for the UBS team,
    correct?
16
             MR. CLUBOK: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor.
17
              THE COURT: Good morning.
18
         All right. For Patrick Daugherty, I think I see Mr.
19
    Kathman out there, correct?
20
             MR. KATHMAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Jason
21
    Kathman on behalf of Patrick Daugherty.
22
              THE COURT: All right. Good morning.
        All right. What about HarbourVest? Anyone on the line

Weisgerber for HarbourVest. 1 THE COURT: All right. Very good. 2 All right. Well, I'll now, I guess, turn to some of the 3 4 Objectors that I haven't hit yet. Who do we have appearing 5 for Mr. Dondero this morning? 6 MR. TAYLOR: Good morning, Your Honor. Clay Taylor 7 of the law firm of Bonds Ellis Eppich Schaefer & Jones appearing on behalf of Mr. Dondero. I have with me, of 8 9 course, Mr. Dondero, who is in the room with me. Dennis Michael Lynn, John Bonds, and Bryan Assink are also appearing 10 on behalf of Mr. Dondero. 11 12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Taylor. All right. For the Dugaboy Trust and Get Good Trust, do 13 14 we have Mr. Draper and others? 15 MR. DRAPER: Yes, Your Honor. This is Douglas Draper 16 on the line. 17 THE COURT: All right. Good morning. 18 MR. DRAPER: Good morning, Your Honor. 19 THE COURT: All right. What about what I'll call 20 Highland Fund, the Highland Funds and Advisors? Do we have 21 Mr. Rukavina this morning, or who do we have? 22 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, good morning. Davor 23 Rukavina and Julian Vasek for the Funds and Advisors. 24 make a full appearance, but it's the parties listed on Docket 1670. 25

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Rukavina. 1 All right. What about --2 MR. HOGEWOOD: Your Honor? 3 4 THE COURT: Go ahead. 5 MR. HOGEWOOD: Your Honor, Lee Hogewood. I'm sorry, 6 Your Honor. Lee Hogewood is also here on behalf of the same 7 parties. THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir. 8 9 All right. What about NexPoint Real Estate Partners, HCRE Partners? 10 MS. DRAWHORN: Good morning, Your Honor. Lauren 11 12 Drawhorn with Wick Phillips on behalf of NexPoint Real Estate Partners, LLC. I'm also here on behalf of the NexPoint Real 13 14 Estate entities which are listed on Docket 1677, and NexBank, which is -- their objection is 1676. 15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. 16 17 All right. Let's cover some of the employees. I think I see Ms. Smith out there. Are you appearing for Mr. Ellington 19 and Mr. Leventon? 20 MS. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor. Frances Smith with Ross 21 & Smith, along with Debra Dandeneau of Baker McKenzie, on 22 behalf of Scott Ellington, Isaac Leventon, Thomas Surgent, and 23 Frank Waterhouse. 24 THE COURT: All right. Could you spell the last name of your co-counsel from Baker McKenzie? I didn't clearly get that. 1 MS. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor. It's Debra Dandeneau, 2 3 D-A-N-D-E-N-N-A-U [sic]. THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. 4 5 All right. CLO Holdco, do we have you appearing this 6 morning? 7 MR. KANE: Your Honor, John Kane on behalf of CLO 8 Holdco. 9 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Kane. All right. I know we had a different group of current or 10 former employees -- Brad Borud, Jack Yang -- and some joining 11 12 parties: Kauffman, Travers, Deadman. Who do we have appearing for those? (Pause.) Anyone? If you're appearing, 13 14 we're not hearing you. Go ahead. 15 MR. KATHMAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Jason Kathman. I represent Mr. Deadman, Mr. Travers, and Mr. 16 17 Kauffman as well. 18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And I can't remember 19 who represents Mr. Borud and Yang. Someone separately. 20 MR. KATHMAN: It's Mr. Winikka, Your Honor. 21 THE COURT: Oh, Mr. Winikka. 22 MR. KATHMAN: And I haven't scrolled through to see whether he's with -- in the 120 people signed in this morning. 23 24 But I believe that objection has been resolved. I think Mr. Pomerantz will probably address that later. So Mr. Winikka may not be appearing. 1 2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, anyone for the 3 IRS? 4 MR. ADAMS: Good morning, Your Honor. David Adams, 5 Department of Justice, on behalf of the United States and its 6 agency, the Internal Revenue Service. 7 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Adams. For the U.S. Trustee, who do we have appearing this 8 9 morning? (No response.) I'm not hearing you. If you're trying to appear, you must be on mute. (No response.) All 10 right. Well, I suspect at some point we'll hear from the U.S. 11 12 Trustee, even though I don't hear anyone now. At this point, I will open it up to anyone else who wishes 13 to appear who I failed to call. 14 15 MS. MATSUMURA: Your Honor, this is Rebecca Matsumura 16 from King & Spalding representing Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. 17 Thank you. 18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Ms. Matsumura. 19 HCLOF. 20 Anyone else? 21 MR. HELD: Your Honor, this is Michael Held with the 22 law firm of Jackson Walker, LLP on behalf of the office 23 landlord, Crescent TC Investors, LP. 2.4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Held. 25 MR. HELD: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Any other lawyer appearances?

All right. Well, again, if there's anyone out there who did not get to appear, maybe we'll hear from you at some point as the day goes on.

All right. Mr. Pomerantz, this is an important day, obviously. How did you want to begin things?

MR. POMERANTZ: So, Your Honor, I have a brief opening to talk about what I plan to do, and a little more lengthy opening, and it'll be come clear. So if I may proceed, Your Honor?

THE COURT: You may.

MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, we're here to request that the Court confirm the Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization, as modified. The operative documents before Your Honor are the Fifth Amended Plan, as modified, that was filed along with our pleadings in support of confirmation on January 22nd and the minor amendments that we filed on February 1st.

Here is my proposal on how we can proceed this morning. I would intend to provide the Court with an opening statement that would last approximately 20 minutes. And then after any other party who desires to make an opening statement, I would propose that the Debtor put on its evidence that it intends to rely on in support of confirmation. The evidence consists of the exhibits that the Debtor filed with its witness and exhibit list on January 22nd and certain amendments that we filed yesterday.

We would also put on the testimony of the following witnesses: Jim Seery, the Debtor's chief executive officer, who Your Honor is very familiar with, and also a member of Strand's board of directors; John Dubel, a member of Strand's board of directors; and Mark Tauber, a vice president with Aon Financial Services, the Debtor's D&O broker.

We have also submitted the declaration of Patrick Leatham, who is with KCC, the Debtor's balloting agent. And we don't intend to put Mr. Leatham on the stand, but he is available on the WebEx for cross-examination, to the extent necessary.

I propose that I would leave the bulk of my argument, which includes going through the Section 1129 requirements for plan confirmation, as well as responding to the remaining outstanding objections, until my closing argument.

With that, Your Honor, I will pause and ask the Court if Your Honor has any questions before I proceed.

THE COURT: I do not have questions, so your method of going forward sounds appropriate. You may go ahead.

MR. POMERANTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE DEBTOR

MR. POMERANTZ: As I indicated, Your Honor, we stand here side by side with the Creditors' Committee asking that the Court confirm the Debtor's plan of reorganization.

As Your Honor is well aware, this case started in December in -- October 2019, was transferred to Your Honor's court in December 2019, and has been pending for approximately 15 months.

On January 9, 2020, I stood before Your Honor seeking the approval of the independent board of directors of Strand, the general partner of the Debtor, pursuant to a heavily-negotiated agreement with the Committee. And as the Court has remarked on occasions throughout the case, the economic stakeholders in this case believed that the installation of a new board consisting of highly-qualified restructuring professionals and a bankruptcy judge, a former bankruptcy judge, was far more attractive than the alternative, which was appointment of a trustee. And upon approval of the settlement, members of the board -- principally, Mr. Seery -- testified that one of the board's goals was to change the culture of litigation that plagued Highland in the decade before filing and threatened to embroil the Debtor in continued litigation if changes were not made.

And as Your Honor is well aware, the last 14 months have not been easy. The board took its role as an independent fiduciary extremely seriously, much to the consternation of the Committee at times, and more recently, to the consternation of Mr. Dondero and his affiliated entities.

And what has the Debtor, under the leadership of the board, been able to accomplish during this case? The answer is a lot more than many parties believed when the board was installed.

The Debtor reached a settlement with the Redeemer

Committee, resolving disputes that had been litigated for many years, in many forums, and that resulted in an arbitration award that was the catalyst for the bankruptcy filing.

Participating in a court-ordered mediation at the end of August 2020 and September, the Debtor reached agreement with Acis and Josh Terry. The Court is all too familiar with the years of disputes between the Debtor and Acis and Josh Terry, which spanned arbitration proceedings and an extremely combative Chapter 11 that Your Honor presided over.

The Debtor next reached an agreement with HarbourVest regarding their assertion of over $300 million of claims against the estate. The HarbourVest litigation stemmed from its investment in the Acis CLOs and would have resulted in complex, fact-intensive litigation which would have forced the Court to revisit many of the issues addressed in the Acis case.

And perhaps most significantly, Your Honor, the Debtor was able to resolve disputes with UBS, disputes which took the most time of any claim in this case, through a contested stay relief motion, a hotly-contested summary judgment motion, and a Rule 3018 motion.

While the Debtor and UBS hoped to file a 9019 motion prior to the commencement of the hearing, they were not able to do so. However, I am now in a position to disclose to the Court the terms of the settlement, which is the subject of documentation acceptable to the Debtor and UBS. The settlement provides for, among other things, the following terms:

UBS will receive a $50 million Class 8 general unsecured claim against the Debtor.

UBS will receive a $25 million Class 9 subordinated general unsecured claim against the Debtor.

UBS will receive a cash payment of $18.5 million from Multi-Strat, which was a defendant and the subject of fraudulent transfer claims.

The Debtor will use reasonable efforts to assist UBS to collect its Phase I judgment against CDL Fund and assets CDL Fund may have.

The parties will also agree to mutual and general releases, subject to agreed carve-outs.

And, of course, the parties will not be bound until the Court approves the settlement pursuant to a 9019 motion we would hope to get on file shortly.

I am also pleased to let the Court know -- breaking news
-- that this morning we reached an agreement to settle Patrick Daugherty's claims. I would now like to, at the request of Mr. Kathman, read into the record the Patrick Daugherty settlement.

Under the Patrick Daugherty settlement, Mr. Daugherty will receive a $750,000 cash payment on the effective date. He will receive an $8.25 million general unsecured claim, and he will receive a $2.75 million Class 9 subordinated claim.

The settlement of all claims against the Debtor and its affiliates -- and affiliates will be defined in the documents -- with the exception of the tax claim against the Debtor, Mr. Dondero, and Mr. Okada -- and for the avoidance of doubt, except as I describe below, nothing in the settlement is intended to affect any pending litigation Mr. Daugherty has against Mr. Dondero, Scott Ellington, Isaac Leventon, Marc Katz, Michael Hurst, and Hunton Andrew Kurth.

Mr. Daugherty will release the Debtor and its affiliates and current employees for all claims and causes of action, except for the agreements I identify below, and dismiss all current employees as to pending actions. We believe this only applies to Thomas Surgent and no other employee is implicated.

Mr. Surgent and other employees, including but not limited to David Klos, Frank Waterhouse, Brian Collins, Lucy Bannon, and Matt Diorio, will receive releases similar to the covenant in Paragraph 1D of the Acis settlement agreement, which essentially provided the release would go away if they assisted anyone in pursuing claims against Mr. Daugherty.

Highland and the above-mentioned parties will accept service of any subpoenas and acknowledge the jurisdiction of the Delaware Chancery Court for the purposes of accepting any subpoenas. And for the avoidance of doubt, Highland will accept service on behalf of the employees only in their capacity as such.

Highland will also use material -- will use reasonable efforts at no material cost to assist Daugherty in vacating a Texas judgment that was issued against him. We've also looked at a form of the motion and believe we have agreed on the form of the motion.

Highland, its affiliates, and current employees will covenant and agree they will not pursue or seek to enforce the injunction and the Texas judgment against Daugherty.

And lastly, Daugherty will not be able to settle any claims for negligence or other claims that might be subject to indemnification by the Debtor or any successor.

Accordingly, Your Honor, other than the claims of Mr.

Dondero and his related entities, and the unliquidated claims of certain employees, substantially all claims have been resolved in this case, a truly remarkable achievement.

Separate and apart, Your Honor, from the work done resolving the claims, the Debtor, under the direction of the independent board, has worked extremely hard to develop a plan of reorganization.

After the independent board got its bearings, it started to work on various plan alternatives. And the board received a lot of pressure from the Committee to go straight to a plan seeking to monetize assets like the one before Your Honor today. However, the board believed that before proceeding to do so and go down an asset monetization path, it should adequately diligence all alternatives, including a continuation of the current business model, a reorganization sponsored by Mr. Dondero and his affiliates, a sale of the Debtor's assets, including a sale to Mr. Dondero.

In June 2020, plan negotiations proceeded in earnest, and the Debtor started to negotiate an asset monetization plan with the Committee, while still pursuing other alternatives.

Preparation of an asset monetization plan is not typically a complicated process. However, creating the appropriate structure for a business like the Debtor's was extremely complicated, because of the contractual, regulatory, tax, and governance issues that had to be carefully considered.

At the same time the Committee negotiations were proceeding down that path, Mr. Seery continued to spend substantial time trying to negotiate a grand bargain plan with Mr. Dondero. It is not an exaggeration to say that over the last several months Mr. Seery has dedicated hundreds of hours towards a potential grand bargain plan.

And why did he do it? Because he has always believed that a global restructuring among all parties was the best opportunity to fully and finally resolve the acrimony that continued to plague the Debtor.

Notwithstanding Mr. Seery's and the independent board's best efforts, they were not able to reach consensus on a grand bargain plan, and the Debtor filed the plan, the initial plan, on August 12th, which ultimately evolved into the plan before the Court today.

The Court conducted an initial hearing on the disclosure statement on October 27th, and then ultimately approved -- the Court approved the disclosure statement at a hearing on November 23rd.

While the Debtor continued to work towards resolving issues with the Committee with the filed plan, Mr. Dondero, beginning to finally see that the train was leaving the station, started to do whatever he could to get in the way of plan confirmation.

He objected to the Acis settlement. When his objection was overruled, he filed an appeal.

He objected to the HarbourVest settlement. When his objection was overruled, he had Dugaboy file an appeal.

He started to interfere with the Debtor's management of its CLOs, stopping trades, refusing to provide support, and threatening Mr. Seery and the Debtor's employees.

He had his Advisors and Funds that he owned and controlled file motions that Your Honor said was a waste of time.

He had those same Funds and Advisors threaten to terminate the Debtor as a manager, in blatant violation of the Court's January 9, 2020 order.

His conduct was so egregious that it warranted entry of a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against him. And of course, he has appealed that ruling as well.

But that was not all. He brazenly threw out his phone, in what the Court has remarked was spoliation of evidence, and he violated the TRO in other ways, actions for which he will answer for at the contempt hearing scheduled later this week.

And, of course, he and his pack of related entities have filed a series of objections. We have received 12 objections to the plan, Your Honor, excluding three joinders. And as I mentioned, we have been pleased to report that we've been able to resolve six of them: those of the Senior Employees, those of Patrick Daugherty, those of CLO Holdco, those of the IRS, those of Texas Taxing Authorities, and those of Jack Young and Brad Borud.

The CLO Holdco objection was withdrawn in connection with the settlement reached with them in connection with the preliminary injunction hearing that the Court heard -- started to hear last week.

The Taxing Authorities' objections have been resolved by the Debtor agreeing to make certain modifications to the plan that were included in our filing yesterday and to include certain provisions in the confirmation order to address other concerns.

The group of employees who are referred to as the Senior Employee are comprised of four individuals -- Frank Waterhouse, Thomas Surgent, Scott Ellington, and Isaac Leventon -- although Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon are no longer employed by the Debtor.

On January 22nd, Your Honor, we filed executed stipulations with Frank Waterhouse and Thomas Surgent. These stipulations were essentially the Senior Employee stipulations that were referred to in the plan and the disclosure statement.

And as part of those stipulations, the Debtor, in consultation with and agreement from the Committee, agreed to certain modifications of the prior version of the Senior Employee stipulation with both Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Surgent that effectively reduced the compensation they needed to provide for the release from 40 percent to five percent of their claims.

The Debtor and the Committee believed the resolution with Mr. Surgent and with Mr. Waterhouse was fair, given the importance of these two people to the transition effort and the increased reliance upon them that the Debtor would have with the departure of Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon. And as a result of that agreement, Your Honor, on January 27th, Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Surgent withdrew from the Senior Employee objection.

Subsequently, we reached agreement with Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon to resolve the objections they raised with confirmation. And at Ms. Dandeneau's request, I would like to read into the record the agreement reached with both of them, and I know she will correct me if I get anything wrong.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. POMERANTZ: Among other things, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon asserted in their objection that they were entitled to have their liquidated bonus claims treated as Class 7 convenience claims under the plan, under their reading of the plan, and their understanding of communications with Mr. Seery. The Debtor disputed the entitlement to elect Class 7 based upon the terms of the plan, the disclosure statement, and applicable law. But as I said, the parties have resolved this dispute.

Mr. Ellington asserts liquidated bonus claims in the aggregate amount of $1,367,197, which, to receive convenience class treatment under anybody's analysis, would have had to be reduced to a million dollars.

Mr. Leventon asserts a liquidated bonus claim in the amount of $598,198.

If Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon were entitled to be included in the convenience class, as they claimed, they would be entitled to receive 85 percent of their claim as and when the claims were allowed under the plan.

To settle the dispute regarding whether, in fact, they would be entitled to the convenience class treatment, they have agreed to reduce the percentage they would otherwise be entitled to receive from 85 percent to 70.125 percent. And as a result, Mr. Ellington's Class 7 convenience claim would be entitled to receive $701,250 if allowed, and Mr. Leventon's Class 7 convenience claim would be entitled to receive $413,175.10 if allowed.

Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon would reserve the right to assert that a hundred percent of their liquidated bonus claims are entitled to administrative priority, and the Debtor, the Committee, the estate and their successors, would reserve all rights to object.

If anyone did object to the allowance of the liquidated bonus claims and Mr. Ellington and/or Mr. Leventon prevailed in such disputes, then the discount that was previously agreed to -- 85 percent to 70.125 percent -- would go away and they would be entitled to receive the full 85 percent payout as essentially a penalty for litigating against them on their allowed claims and losing.

As an alternative to the estate preserving the right to object to the allowance of Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon's liquidated bonus claims, the Debtor and the Committee have an option to be exercised before the effective date to just agree that both their claims will be allowed, and allowed as Class 7 convenience claims. And if that agreement was reached, then the amount of such liquidated bonus claims, they would receive a payment equal to 60 percent of their allowed convenience class claim.

In exchange, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon would waive their right to assert payment of a hundred percent of their liquidated bonus claims as an administrative expense.

So, under this circumstance, Mr. Ellington would receive an allowed claim of $600,000, which is 60 percent of a million dollars, and Mr. Leventon will receive a payment on account of his Class 7 claim of $358,918.80.

Under both scenarios, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon would preserve their paid time off claims that are treated in Class 6, and they would preserve their other claims in Class 8, largely unliquidated indemnification claims, subject to the rights of any party in interest to object to those claims.

Mr. Ellington will change his vote in Class 8 from rejecting the plan to accepting the plan, and Mr. Leventon would change his votes in Class 8 and Class 7 from rejecting the plan to accepting the plan. And Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon would withdraw any remaining objections to confirmation of the plan, and we intend to put this settlement in the confirmation order.

Your Honor, six objections to the plan remain outstanding. One objection was filed by the Office of the United States

Trustee, and the remaining five objections are from Mr.

Dondero and his related entities. And I would like to put up a demonstrative on the screen which shows how all of these objections lead back to Jim Dondero.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. POMERANTZ: You see on the top left, Your Honor, there's a box in white that says A through E, which are the five remaining objections. And you can see how they relate. But all of it goes back to that orange box in the middle, Jim Dondero.

These objections, which I will address in my closing argument in detail, are not really focused on concerns that creditors are being treated unfairly, and that's because Mr. Dondero and his entities don't really have any valid claims. Mr. Dondero owns no equity in the Debtor. He owns the Debtor's general partner, Strand, which in turn owns a quarter percent of the total equity in the Debtor. Mr. Dondero's only other claim is a claim for indemnification. And as Your Honor would expect, the Debtor intends to fight that claim vigorously.

Dugaboy and Get Good have asserted frivolous administrative and unsecured claims, which I will discuss in more detail later.

Dugaboy does have an equity interest in the Debtor, but it represents eighteen-hundredths of a percent of the Debtor's total equity.

And Mr. Rukavina's clients similarly have no general unsecured claims against the Debtor. Either his clients did not file proofs of claim or filed claims and then agreed to have them expunged. The only claims that his clients assert is a disputed administrative claim filed by NexPoint Advisors.

And the objections aren't legitimately concerned about the post-confirmation operations of the estate, to preserve equity value, how much people are getting, whether Mr. Seery is really the right person to run these estates. That's because Mr. Dondero has repeatedly told the Court that he believes his offer, which doesn't come close to satisfying claims in full in this case, is for fair value and that creditors, who are owed more than $280 million, will not receive anywhere close to the amount of their claims.

Rather, Mr. Dondero and his entities are concerned with one thing and one thing only: how to preserve their rights to continue their frivolous litigation after confirmation against the independent directors, the Claimant Trustee, the Litigation Trustee, the employees, the Claimant Trust Oversight Board, and anyone who will stand in their way. For Mr. Dondero, the decision is binary: Either give him what he wants, or as he has told Mr. Seery, he will burn down the place.

Your Honor will hear a lot of argument today about how the -- and tomorrow, in closing -- about how the injunction, the gatekeeper, and the exculpation provisions of the plan are not appropriate under applicable law. The Debtor, of course, disagrees with these arguments, and I will address them in detail in my closing argument.

But I do think it's important to focus the Court at the outset on the January 9, 2020 order that the Court entered which addressed some of these issues. This order, which has not been appealed, which was actually agreed to by Mr.

Dondero, has no expiration by its terms and will continue post-confirmation, did some things that the Objectors just refuse to recognize and accept.

It approved an exculpation for negligence for the independent directors and their agents. It provided that the Court would be the gatekeeper to determine whether any claims asserted for them -- against them for gross negligence and willful misconduct could be pursued, and if so, provided that this Court would have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate those claims. And it prevented Mr. Dondero and his related entities from causing any related entity to terminate any agreements with the Debtor.

I also note, Your Honor, that the Court's July 16, 2020 order approving Mr. Seery as chief executive officer and chief 1 restructuring officer included the same exculpation and 2 3 gatekeeping provision as contained in the January 29th --4 January 9th order. 5 Your Honor, we have all come too far to allow Mr. Dondero 6 to make good on his promise to Mr. Seery to burn down the 7 place if he didn't get what he wanted. The Debtor deserves better, the creditors deserve better, and this Court deserves 8 9 better. That concludes my opening argument, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I had one follow-11 12 up question about the Daugherty settlement. You did not mention, is it going to be reflected in the confirmation 13 14 order, is it going to be the subject of a 9019 motion, or 15 something else? 16 MR. POMERANTZ: It'll be subject to a -- it'll be 17 subject to a 9019 motion, Your Honor. 18 THE COURT: All right. 19 MR. POMERANTZ: I apologize for leaving that out. 20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Well, --21 MR. KATHMAN: Your --22 THE COURT: -- I appreciate that you stuck closely to 23 your 20-minute time estimate. 24 As far as other opening statements today, I'm going to 25 start with the objections that were resolved. Mr. Kathman, I see you there. Who will speak on behalf of Patrick Daugherty and the announced settlement?

OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF PATRICK DAUGHERTY

MR. KATHMAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Jason

Kathman on behalf of Mr. Daugherty.

Mr. Pomerantz correctly recited the bullet points of the settlement that we agreed to in principle this morning. There was one that he did leave off that I do want to make sure that I mention and that it's read into the record. And he read at the top end that Mr. Daugherty does maintain his ability to pursue his 2008 tax refund bonus claim, or tax refund compensation claim. If the Court will recall, there's a contingent liability out there based on how compensation was paid back in 2008 that's the subject of an IRS audit. And so the settlement expressly contemplates that those -- that that claim will be preserved and Mr. Daugherty may pursue that claim. Should the IRS have an adverse ruling and we have to pay money back, we get to preserve that claim.

And so the one thing that is preserved, Your Honor -- and the same way that Mr. Pomerantz read verbatim the words, I'm going to read verbatim the words that we've agreed to:

Daugherty maintains and may pursue the 2008 tax refund compensation portion of his claim that is currently a disputed contingent liability. The Debtor and all successors reserve the right to assert any and all defenses to this portion of the Daugherty claim. The litigation of this claim shall be stayed until the IRS makes a final determination, provided, however, Daugherty may file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking to have the amount of his tax claim determined for reservation purposes as a "disputed claim" under the Debtor's plan. The Debtor and all successors reserve the right to assert any and all defenses to any such motion.

So the Debtor's plan says that they can make estimations for disputed claims. There is not currently something reserving this particular claim, so we wanted to make sure we reserve our rights to be able to have that amount reserved under the Debtor's plan. And the Debtor obviously preserves their ability to object to that.

With that, Your Honor, it is going to be papered up in a 9019, and we'll have some further things to say at the 9019 hearing, but didn't want to derail the Debtor's confirmation hearing this morning.

THE COURT: All right. And --

MR. POMERANTZ: And Mr. Kathman is -- Mr. Kathman is correct. I neglected to mention that provision, but he is -- he read it, and that's agreed to.

THE COURT: All right. And I did not hear anything about Mr. Daugherty's vote on the plan. Is there an agreement to change or a motion to change the vote from no to yes?

MR. KATHMAN: Your Honor, that wasn't, I think,

31 directly -- and Mr. Pomerantz can correct me if I'm wrong, or 1 2 Mr. Morris, actually, probably more could -- that wasn't 3 directly addressed, but I think the answer to that is probably 4 they don't need our vote. 5 THE COURT: Okay. 6 MR. KATHMAN: I think they have enough votes in that 7 class to carry. 8 THE COURT: Okay. MR. KATHMAN: But the answer directly is that that 9 wasn't specifically addressed one way or the other. 10 11 THE COURT: All right. 12 MR. POMERANTZ: That is correct, Your Honor. We 13 would, of course, not oppose Mr. Daugherty changing his vote, 14 but as Your Honor saw in the ballot summary, we are way over 15 the amount in dollar amounts of claims. But if they wanted to 16 change their vote, we wouldn't oppose. 17 THE COURT: All right. Well, --18 MR. KATHMAN: Your Honor, I have -- I have the 19 benefit of Mr. Daugherty. He is on -- I should note, Mr. 20 Daugherty is on the hearing this morning. He just let me know 21 that he is willing to change his vote. If the Debtor were to 22 so make a motion, we're fine changing our vote to in favor of 23 the plan. 24 THE COURT: All right. Well, we'll get the ballot agent declaration or testimony later. At one time when I had checked, there was a numerosity problem but not a 1 dollar amount problem. And it sounds like that is no longer 2 3 an issue, perhaps because of the employee votes, or I don't 4 know. 5 But, all right. Well, thank you. 6 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, there is still a 7 numerosity problem. THE COURT: Okay. 8 9 MR. POMERANTZ: There's not a dollar amount problem. 10 THE COURT: Okay. 11 MR. POMERANTZ: But we'll address that and cram-down 12 in closing. 13 THE COURT: All right. Very good. 14 All right. Well, I want to hear from the -- what we've 15 called the Senior Employee group. Is Ms. Dandeneau going to confirm the announcement of Mr. Pomerantz? 16 17 MS. DANDENEAU: Yes, Your Honor. I confirm that Mr. 18 Pomerantz's recitation of the terms to which we've agreed is 19 accurate. 20 THE COURT: All right. Very good. 21 All right. I suppose I should circle back to UBS. We've, 22 of course, heard in prior hearings the past few weeks that 23 there was a settlement with UBS, but Mr. Clubok, could I get 24 you to confirm what Mr. Pomerantz announced earlier about the UBS settlement?

MR. CLUBOK: Yes. Good morning again, Your Honor. 1 Yes, we have reached a settlement, and it's just -- and 2 it's been approved internally at UBS and obviously by the 3 4 Debtor. It's just subject to the final documentation. And we are working very closely with the Debtor to try to do that as 5 6 quickly as possible. 7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. All right. Well, let me go, then, to other opening 8 9 statements. Is there anyone else who at this time wishes to make an opening statement? And, you know, for the pending 10 objectors, please, no more than 20 minutes. 11 12 MR. CLEMENTE: Your Honor? Your Honor, if I may, it's Matt Clemente on behalf of the Committee. 13 THE COURT: Okay. 14 MR. CLEMENTE: I'd be very brief, but I would like to 15 make some remarks to Your Honor. It'll be less than five 16 17 minutes. 18 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead. 19 MR. CLEMENTE: Thank you, Your Honor. 20 OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE UNSECURED CREDITORS' COMMITTEE 21 MR. CLEMENTE: Again, for the record, Matt Clemente; 22 Sidley Austin; on behalf of the Official Committee of 23 Unsecured Creditors. 24 Your Honor, to be clear, the Committee fully supports 25 confirmation of the Debtor's plan and believes the plan is confirmable and should be confirmed.

Although it has taken us quite some time to get to this point, Your Honor, and as Mr. Pomerantz referred, the Debtor's business is somewhat complex, the plan is remarkably straightforward, Your Honor, and has only been made complicated by the various objections filed by Mr. Dondero's tentacles.

At bottom, Your Honor, the plan is designed to recognize the reality of the situation that the Committee has continually been expressing to Your Honor, and that is the overwhelming amount of creditors in terms of dollars are litigation creditors, creditors who are here entirely because of the fraudulent and other conduct of Mr. Dondero and his tentacles.

The other third-party creditors, Your Honor, by and large are those collateral to these litigation claims in terms of true trade creditors and service providers.

Recognizing this fact, Your Honor, the plan contains an appropriate convenience class, which, in the Committee's view, provides a fair way to capture a large number of claims and appropriately recognizes the distinction between those claims and the large litigation claims. And the holders of these large litigation claims, including now Mr. Daugherty, have voted in favor of allowing this convenience class treatment.

Your Honor, after distributions are made to the administrative creditors, the priority creditors, the secured creditors, and the convenience creditors, the remainder goes to general unsecured creditors who will control how this value is realized. These are the large litigation creditors.

Additionally, Your Honor, recognizing the possibility of recovery in excess of general unsecured claims plus interest, and to thwart, from the Committee's perspective, what would have undoubtedly been an argument by one of the Dondero tentacles that the general unsecured creditors could be paid more than they are owed, the plan provides for a contingent interest to kick in after payment in full for interests of all prior claims.

Your Honor, this is the sum and substance of the plan. At bottom, fairly straightforward. And the true creditors, Your Honor, have voted overwhelmingly in favor of the plan. Class 8 has voted to support the plan. Class 7 has voted to accept the plan. And now I believe, with Mr. Daugherty's settlement, one hundred percent in amount of Class 8, non-insider, non-Dondero-controlled or (audio gap) have voted in favor of the plan.

To be clear, as Your Honor pointed out and as Mr.

Pomerantz referenced, there is not numerosity in Class 8, Your Honor, but that is driven, as Your Honor will see, from approximately 30 no-votes of current employees who the Committee believes are not owed any amounts and therefore they will not be receiving payments under the plan, yet they voted against the plan. So although we have a technical cram-down plan from the Class 8 perspective, Your Honor, the plan voting reflects the reality that the economic parties in interest overwhelmingly support the plan.

So, Your Honor, cutting through the machinations of the Dondero tentacles, we do have a fairly straightforward plan and a plan that the Committee believes is confirmable and should be confirmed.

Your Honor, since I've been in front of you for over a year now, I've referred to the goals of the Committee in this case, and the goals are straightforward in terms of expressing them but can be difficult in reality to implement them. The Committee's goals have been two-fold: to maximize the value of the estate and therefore the recoveries for its constituency, and to disentangle from the Dondero (audio gap).

As with all things Highland, although these goals are straightforward, they're remarkably difficult to achieve, given the Dondero tentacles. However, the Committee strongly believes the plan achieves these two goals.

First, the plan provides a credible path to maximize recovery with Mr. Seery, who has gotten to know the assets and who has performed skillfully and credibly throughout this very difficult process. It is a difficult set of assets and complex set of assets, as Your Honor knows very well.

To be sure, there is uncertainty associated with the Debtor's projections, but that is inherent in the nature of the assets of the Debtor, and frankly, is inherent in the nature of projections themselves. And Mr. Dondero and his tentacles will point to the downside, potentially, in those projections, but the Court will be reminded that there is also potential upside in those projections, an upside that would inure to the benefit of the general unsecured claims.

Second, Your Honor, although it is seemingly impossible to free yourself from the Dondero web until every single one of the 2,000 barbed tentacles is painfully removed, if that's even possible, Your Honor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, the Claimant Trustee, the Litigation Sub-Trust, the Litigation Trustee, and the Oversight Board construct and mechanisms is a structure that the Committee believes provides the creditors with the best possibility to do so, and that is to deal with what will undoubtedly be a flurry of attacks from Mr. Dondero and his tentacles.

This is a virtual certainty, Your Honor. The creditors have seen this movie before and Your Honor has seen this movie before. They have seen Mr. Dondero make and break promises. They have seen Mr. Dondero attempt to bludgeon adversaries into submission in order to accept his offerings, and they have heard Mr. Dondero say that which he has said in this court during the preliminary injunction hearing -- specifically, that the Debtor's plan "is going to end up in a myriad of litigation."

The creditors are steeled in their will to be rid of Mr. Dondero, and they're confident in this structure to do so.

To be clear, Your Honor, what is before the Court today for confirmation is the Debtor's plan, not some other plan that no one supports other than Mr. Dondero and his tentacles. The question isn't whether Mr. Dondero has a better proposal — and footnote, Your Honor, the answer is he does not, both from a qualitative and quantitative perspective — but whether the plan before the Court is in the best interest of creditors and should be confirmed. The Committee strongly believes it is, and should, and all the Committee members support confirmation of the Debtor's plan.

Recognizing Mr. Dondero's behavior, Your Honor, and threats regarding how he will behave in the future, there are certain provisions in the plan that are of critical importance to the creditors. Of course, all provisions in the plan are extremely important, Your Honor, but as Mr. Pomerantz referenced, the creditors need the gatekeeper, exculpation, and injunction provisions.

The reason is obvious, and is emphasized by the supplemental objection filed just yesterday by some of Mr. Dondero's tentacles -- namely, the Dugaboy and the Get Good Trusts. And I quote, Your Honor: "It is virtually certain that, under the Debtor's plan, there will be years of 1 2 litigation in multiple adversary proceedings, appeals, and collection activities, all adding substantial uncertainty and 3 4 delay." 5 Additionally, Your Honor has seen from the proceedings in 6 this case and has expressed frustration at numerous times at 7 the myriad and at times baseless and borderline frivolous and 8 out of touch with reality suits and objections and proceedings 9 that the Dondero tentacles bring. The creditors need the gatekeeper, exculpation, and injunction provisions to preserve 10 11 and protect value. And the record, I think, to this point is 12 clear, and will be further made clear through the confirmation proceedings, that the protections are appropriate and entirely 13 14 within this Court's authority to grant. 15 In sum, Your Honor, the Committee fully supports 16 confirmation of the plan. The Committee believes it is 17 confirmable and should be confirmed, and two classes of 18 creditors and the overwhelming amount of creditors in terms of 19 dollars agree. 20 That's it, Your Honor. Unless you have questions for me, 21 I have nothing further at this time. 22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Clemente. 23 MR. CLEMENTE: Thank you, Your Honor. 24 THE COURT: All right. Who else wishes to be heard?

MR. DRAPER: Your Honor, this is Douglas Draper. I'd like to be heard. I have a few -- I'll take five minutes, at most --

THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

MR. DRAPER: -- and just focus on a few things. OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE GET GOOD TRUST AND DUGABOY

INVESTMENT TRUST

MR. DRAPER: I'm going to focus my opening remarks on the releases, the exculpations, and channeling injunctions in the plan. I'm not waiving my other objections, but, rather, trying not to subject the Court to hearing the same argument from multiple lawyers.

The good thing about the law is that it's absolute in certain respects. It does not matter who is asserting a legal protection, the law applies it. For example, a serial killer is entitled to a Miranda warning and a protection against unlawful search and seizure. The law does not allow tainted evidence or an unlawful admission into evidence, notwithstanding the fact that the lack of admission of that evidence may lead to the freeing of that serial killer.

Today, you must make an independent evaluation as to whether the plan complies with 1129 and applicable law. The decision must be made notwithstanding the fact that it is being made by a Dondero entity. It's not being -- it must be applied notwithstanding the fact that it's being made by me.

We contend that the plan does not meet the hurdle and confirmation should be denied, notwithstanding the fact that the infirmity with the plan is asserted by me and notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Pomerantz and the unsecured creditors have overwhelming support.

We all know 1141, the Barton Doctrine, and 544 -- 524 provide injunctions and protections for certain parties associated with the Debtor. Had the plan merely referenced these sections and stated that the injunction, et cetera, shall not exceed those allowed pursuant to Pacific Lumber, I would not be making this argument.

Instead, we see a plan that has a definition of Exculpated Parties, Released Parties, Related Parties, that exceed the protections afforded by the Bankruptcy Code, the Barton Doctrine, and 524.

We have a grant of jurisdiction and oversight that exceeds that allowed under Craig's Store, the Craig's Store line of cases.

We have releases of claims against non-debtor parties, such as Strand, who is, under the Bankruptcy Code, under 723, liable for the debts of the Debtor.

The plan, with its expansive releases, released parties, grant of injunctions, exculpations and channeling injunctions, are impermissible under Fifth Circuit case law. And I would ask the Court to look closely at those definitions, who is -- who the law allows to be exculpated and released and who the law specifically prohibits being exculpated and released, and, in fact, apply the Pacific Lumber line of -- case, as well as 524 and the Bankruptcy Code when you look at these issues.

Notwithstanding the overwhelming so-called support by the creditors at issue, the law must be applied, and it must be applied pursuant to what the Fifth Circuit requires.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Draper.
Other Objectors with opening statements?

MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, Davor Rukavina. Briefly?
THE COURT: Okay.

OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF CERTAIN FUNDS AND ADVISORS

MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I represent various funds, including three of which have independent boards. The Debtor manages more than $140 million of those funds, and the Debtor manages around a billion dollars in CLOs.

Whether I am a tentacle of Mr. Dondero or not -- I'm not, since there's an independent board -- the fact remains that the Debtor wants to manage these assets and my clients' money post-assumption and post-confirmation with effective judicial immunity. So our fundamental problem with this plan is the assumption of those contracts under 365(c) and (b). I think we'll have to wait for the evidence to see what the Debtor proposes and has, and I will reserve, I guess, the balance of my arguments on that to closing, depending on what the evidence is.

But I don't want the Court to lose sight of the fact that what the Debtor wants to do is, in contravention of our desires, continue managing our assets post-confirmation, even as it liquidates, just to make a buck. It's our money, Your Honor, and whether we're Dondero or not, we're a couple hundred million, probably, or more, of third-party investment professionals, pension funds, et cetera, and we should not be all tainted without evidence as a tentacle of someone whom, I'll remind everyone here, built a multi-billion dollar company and made a lot of money for people.

The second objection, Your Honor, goes to the Class 8 rejection. It sounds like there's still a problem with the number of creditors, even though certain creditors have switched their votes. That raises now the fair and equitable standard, together with the undue discrimination and the absolute priority rule. I think we'll have to let the evidence play out, and I'll reserve the balance of my closing or the balance of my remarks to closing on that issue.

The third issue, Your Honor, is the same exculpation and release and injunction provisions that Mr. Draper raised.

Those are legal matters that I'll discuss at closing, but I do note that the Debtor purports to prevent my clients from exercising post-assumption post-confirmation rights, period.

And that's just inappropriate, because if the Debtor wants the benefits of these agreements, well, then of course it has to comply with the burdens. And to say a priori that anything that my clients might do post-confirmation would be the result of a bad-faith Mr. Dondero strategy, there's no basis for that and that's not the basis on which my clients' rights in the future, when there is no bankruptcy estate and there is no bankruptcy jurisdiction, can be enjoined.

And the final point, Your Honor, entails this channeling injunction. I'll talk about it during closing. It is inappropriate under 28 U.S.C. 959. This is not a Barton Doctrine trustee issue, this is a debtor-in-possession, and a channeling injunction, the Court will have no jurisdiction post-confirmation.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Does Mr. Dondero's counsel have an opening statement?

MR. TAYLOR: I do, Your Honor. I'll keep it brief.

This is Clay Taylor on behalf of Mr. Dondero.

OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF JAMES D. DONDERO

MR. TAYLOR: Your Honor, the plan is clear in some respects, and I'm not going to belabor these points, as other objecting counsel have already addressed this. But the plan does provide for non-debtor releases, and it provides for non-debtor releases for parties beyond that which is allowed by Pacific Lumber and under the Code.

It also provides for exculpations of non-debtor parties in excess of that which is allowed under the Code and applicable case law.

Finally -- or, not finally, but third, it requires this Court to keep a broad retention of post-confirmation jurisdiction that could go on for years, and that is improper.

Finally, it requires the parties to submit to the jurisdiction of this Court via a channeling injunction, which we believe is beyond that which is allowed under applicable Fifth Circuit precedent.

What is clear, what the evidence will show -- and I thought it was interesting that none of the proponents of plan confirmation ever talk about what the evidence is going to show. They testified a lot before Your Honor, but they didn't ever talk about what the evidence would show. What the evidence will show is this plan was solicited via a disclosure statement that told all the unsecured creditors, we project that you're going to receive 87 cents on the dollar on your claim.

About two months later, and this was Friday of this past week, they changed those projections, and those projections then showed unsecured creditors, under a plan analysis, that they were going to receive 62 cents on the dollar. That is in contrast to the liquidation analysis that had been prepared just two months prior showing that, under a hypothetical Chapter 7 liquidation analysis, that the unsecured creditors would receive 65 cents on the dollar. Obviously, 62 cents is less than 65 percent.

Realizing they had a problem, I guess, over the weekend, they changed last night, the night before confirmation, and sent us some new projections that now show that the unsecured creditors under a plan would receive 71 cents on the dollar.

Your Honor, what the evidence will show, and it is Highland's burden to show this, is that -- that they meet the best interests of the creditors. And part of that is that they will do better under a plan rather than under a hypothetical Chapter 7.

Quite simply, they don't have the evidence, nor have they done the analysis to be able to prove that to this Court.

What the evidence will also show is clear is that Mr. Seery, under the plan analysis, is scheduled to receive at least $3.6 million over just the first two years of this plan if it doesn't go any further. And that's just for monthly payouts of $150,000 per month. That's not including a to-beagreed-upon success fee structure, which hasn't been negotiated yet. And if it hasn't been negotiated yet, it can't be analyzed yet to see if those costs would exceed their benefits and therefore drive the return down such that a hypothetical Chapter 7 trustee could do better.

There is also going to be additional costs for the Litigation Trustee and the fees that they are going to charge. There's going to be an Oversight Committee, and those fees are also to be negotiated. There's also U.S. Trustee fees, which Mr. Seery tells us that he has calculated within the liquidation and plan analysis numbers, albeit both myself and Mr. Draper, as the evidence will show, have asked for the rollups that come behind the liquidation and plan analysis in each instance of the three iterations that have been done in two months, and we have been denied that information. That evidence is not going to come in before this Court, and without that rollup information, this Court can't make an independent verification that this meets the best interests of the creditor and better than a hypothetical Chapter 7 trustee.

What the evidence will also show, make an assumption that, under a plan analysis, that Mr. Seery will be able to generate higher returns on the sale of the assets of the Highland debtor and its subsidiaries, to the neighborhood of $60 million higher. There is no independent verification of this. There has been no due diligence done. It was merely an assumption done by Mr. Seery and his advisors, and we submit that they will not have the evidence to show that they can beat a Chapter 7 trustee.

This Court does have an alternative before it. There is an alternative plan that has been filed under seal. The Court is aware of it. And it guarantees that creditors will receive at least 65 cents on the dollar. Moreover, those claims are guaranteed -- and they're going to be secured that they will be paid that money.

MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, this is under -- this is under seal. And I never interrupt somebody's argument, but this plan is under seal for a reason, Your Honor, and I object to any description of the terms of a plan that's not before Your Honor and is under seal.

THE COURT: Okay. I sustain that objection.

MR. TAYLOR: Your Honor has a means to cut the Gordian knot of the litigation and appeals before it and to ensure that there is certainty for creditors. It would massively reduce the administrative fee burn that is contemplated under the proposed plan before the Court. As I've mentioned, it's at least $3.6 million just in monthly fees for Mr. Seery alone. All of the rest of the fees are yet to be determined and to be negotiated. I don't see how any analysis could have been done regarding the administrative fee burn that is going to happen over the two years and potentially much further as this case draws on.

For those reasons alone, Your Honor, we believe that the plan confirmation should be denied and this Court should look at the alternatives before it.

MR. KATHMAN: Can I say something before --

MR. TAYLOR: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. 1 2 All right. Have I missed any Objectors? 3 MR. KATHMAN: Your Honor? 4 MS. DRAWHORN: Yes, Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. --6 MR. KATHMAN: Your Honor, if I could spend just one 7 minute, and I -- we -- I -- we filed a joinder on behalf of 8 Mr. -- or, Jason Kathman on behalf of Davis Deadman, Todd 9 Travers, and Paul Kauffman. THE COURT: Uh-huh. 10 11 OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF DAVIS DEADMAN, TODD TRAVERS, AND PAUL KAUFFMAN 12 13 MR. KATHMAN: Mr. Pomerantz had noted, I think, at 14 the front end that the Debtor amended their plan that resolved 15 those objections. I just want to say for the record that 16 those had been resolved. 17 And with that, Your Honor, may I be dismissed? 18 THE COURT: Yes, you may. Thank you. 19 MR. KATHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. 20 THE COURT: All right. Was Ms. Drawhorn speaking up 21 to make an opening statement? 22 MS. DRAWHORN: Yes. 23 THE COURT: Go ahead. 24 MS. DRAWHORN: Yes, Your Honor. 25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE NEXPOINT PARTIES

MS. DRAWHORN: Just very briefly, Lauren Drawhorn on behalf of NexPoint Real Estate Partners, the NexPoint Real Estate entities, and NexBank.

Just a very brief opening. Just wanted to note that it seems that the Debtor's and the Committee's position seems to be if there's some way, any way, to connect an entity to Mr. Dondero, then they don't need to perform any true evaluation of potential claims or that party's rights or their concerns, and that results in ignoring not only the merits of many claims but also the basic requirements of due process and the statutes, the Bankruptcy Code, and the case law.

We filed objections that were focused largely on the injunctions and the releases, and then also the proposed subordination provisions.

Two of my clients, one of them has a proof of claim, and while it is being disputed, that claim is out there and should get -- be entitled to be pursued and defended, and many of the injunctions appear to prevent my client from doing so.

Similarly, it was mentioned that NexBank, in the demonstrative, had a terminated service agreement, but there's periods of time for which no services were provided but payment was made, and that's a potential admin claim that has been raised. And the injunction, again, appears to prevent my clients from pursuing these claims.

Appx. 04232

So I think, despite the general response to any connection to Dondero means there's no merit, that's not what we're here for today. We need to really look at the merits of all potential claims and all -- the rights of all parties and the -- how the injunction and release provisions prevent that and how they don't comply with the required law.

And, of course, we join in with many of the other objections, but that's my main point for the opening today.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

All right. I think I have covered all of the at least pending objections except the U.S. Trustee. I'll check again to see if someone is out there for the U.S. Trustee. (No response.) All right. If you're there, we're not hearing you. You're on mute.

Okay. Any other attorneys out there who wish to make an opening statement?

All right. Well, I'll turn back to Mr. Pomerantz. You may call your first witness.

MR. POMERANTZ: Okay. I will turn the virtual podium over to my partner, John Morris, who will be putting on our witnesses.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Morris, you may call your first witness.

MR. MORRIS: Good morning, Your Honor. John Morris from Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones on behalf of the Debtor.

Can you hear me okay? 1 2 THE COURT: I can. 3 MR. MORRIS: Okay. Thank you very much. The Debtor calls James Seery as its first witness. 4 5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Seery, if you could say, 6 "Testing, one, two," please. 7 MR. SEERY: Testing, one, two. 8 THE COURT: All right. Hmm, I've not picked up your 9 video yet. Let's try it again. MR. SEERY: Testing, one, two. Testing. 10 11 MR. MORRIS: We have the audio. THE COURT: We have the audio. 12 13 MR. SEERY: Oh. 14 MR. MORRIS: There we go. 15 THE COURT: There you are. 16 MR. SEERY: The video should be working. 17 THE COURT: All right. 18 MR. POMERANTZ: Yeah. Actually, one -- Your Honor, 19 one thing before we start. We have Patrick Leatham from KCC. 20 He is prepared to sit on the line for the whole day until his 21 time comes. I would just like to know if anyone intends to 22 cross-examine him or object to his declaration. Because if 23 they don't, we could excuse Mr. Leatham. 2.4 THE COURT: All right. What about that? Anyone want to cross-examine the balloting agent?

1 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, Davor Rukavina. I do not. 2 If the Debtor would just state, with the change of votes in 3 Class 8, what the final tally is, I see no reason to dispute 4 that, and then we can dismiss this gentleman. But I do think 5 that we should all know, with the change of votes, what it now 6 is. 7 THE COURT: All right. 8 MR. POMERANTZ: We will -- we will work on that, Your 9 Honor, with the changes as a result of the settlements today, and including Mr. Daugherty's client. We can get that 10 11 information sometime today. 12 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Rukavina, do you agree that he can be excused with that representation, or do 13 14 you want --15 MR. RUKAVINA: Yes, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So, it's Mr. Leatham? 17 You are excused if you want to drop off this video. 18 All right. Mr. Seery, please raise your right hand. 19 JAMES P. SEERY, DEBTOR'S WITNESS, SWORN 20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. Morris, go 21 ahead. 22 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor. 23 If I may, I'd like to just begin by moving my exhibits 24 into evidence so that it'll make this all go a little bit

THE COURT: All right. 1 MR. MORRIS: And if you'll indulge me just a little 2 3 patience, please, because the Debtor's exhibits are found in 4 three separate places. 5 THE COURT: Uh-huh. 6 MR. MORRIS: And I would just take them one at a 7 time. First, at Docket No. 1822, the Court will find Debtor's 8 9 Exhibits A through what I'm referring to as 6Z. Six Zs. So the Debtor respectfully moves into evidence Exhibits A through 10 6Z on Docket No. 1822. 11 12 THE COURT: All right. Are there any objections? MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I have a number of 13 14 targeted objections to all of the exhibits. Did I hear Mr. 15 Morris say 6Z? 16 THE COURT: Yes. 17 MR. MORRIS: Yes. 18 MR. RUKAVINA: Or six -- then, Your Honor, I can go 19 through my limited objections, if that pleases the Court. 20 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead. 21 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, Exhibit B, a transcript, B 22 as in boy. Exhibit D, an email, D as in dog. Exhibit E as in 23 Edward. Moving on, Your Honor, 4D as in dog. 4E as in 2.4 Edward. 25 MR. MORRIS: Slow down, please.

1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm sorry. 3 THE COURT: You said 4D as in dog, correct? 4 MR. RUKAVINA: Then -- yes, Your Honor. Then 4E as 5 in Edward. 6 THE COURT: Okay. 7 MR. RUKAVINA: 4G as in George. Your Honor, one, two, three, four, five T. 5T as in Tom. And then, Your 8 9 Honor, one, two -- 6R. 6S. 6T as in Tom. And 6U as in under. That's it. 10 THE COURT: All right. Well, Mr. Morris, do you want 11 12 to carve those out for now and just offer them the oldfashioned way and I can rule on the objections then? 13 14 MR. MORRIS: Why don't we do that? I may just deal 15 with it at the end of the case. But subject to those 16 objections, the Debtor then moves into evidence the balance of 17 the exhibits on Docket 1822. 18 THE COURT: All right. So, for the record, the Court 19 will admit all exhibits at Docket No. 1822 at this time except 20 B, D, E, 4D, 4E, 4G, 5T, 6R, 6S, 6T, and 6U. 21 (Debtor's Docket 1822 exhibits, exclusive of Exhibits B, 22 D, E, 4D, 4E, 4G, 5T, 6R, 6S, 6T, and 6U, are received into 23 evidence.) 24 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Morris, continue. 25 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

Next, at Docket 1866, you'll find Debtor's Exhibits 7A 1 through 7E, and the Debtor respectfully moves those dockets --2 3 documents into evidence. 4 THE COURT: All right. Any objection? (No 5 response.) Are there any objections? 6 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, not from -- not from me. 7 THE COURT: All right. Hearing no objections, the Court will admit all Debtor exhibits appearing at Docket Entry 8 No. 1866. 9 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor. 10 (Debtor's Docket 1866 exhibits are received into 11 12 evidence.) 13 MR. MORRIS: And finally, at Docket 1877, the Court 14 will find Debtor's Exhibits 7F through 7Q, and the Debtor 15 respectfully moves for the admission of those documents into 16 evidence. 17 THE COURT: All right. Any objection? 18 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I might have to talk about 19 this with Mr. Morris, but I have 7F as any document entered in 20 the case, 7G as any document to be filed, et cetera. Mr. 21 Morris, am I wrong about that? 22 MR. MORRIS: I don't have that list in front of me. 23 So I'll reserve on those documents and we can talk about them 24 at a break, Your Honor. 25 THE COURT: All right.

MR. DRAPER: Your Honor, this is Douglas Draper. I 1 object, and I don't have the number in front of me, it's the 2 3 liquidation analysis and the plan summary. It's a summary 4 exhibit, and we've not been given the underlying documentation 5 with respect to them. I'd ask Mr. Morris to deal with that 6 separately also. 7 MR. MORRIS: All right. Well, we're certainly going to be moving that into evidence, so we can deal with that at 8 9 the time, Your Honor. THE COURT: Okay. Which documents are they? Which 10 exhibits are those? 11 12 MR. DRAPER: I don't have the number in front -- Mr. Morris, do you have the number for that exhibit? 13 14 MR. MORRIS: I do, but why don't we just deal with it 15 when I -- when I get into --16 THE COURT: Okay. 17 MR. MORRIS: -- into the testimony? 18 THE COURT: I just wanted the record clear what I am 19 admitting at this time at Docket Entry No. 1877. Or do you 20 want to just --21 MR. MORRIS: Okay. THE COURT: -- hold all those --22 23 MR. MORRIS: Mr. Rukavina, other than F and G, which 24 you noted, is there any objection to any of the other 25 documents on that witness and exhibit list?

Seery - Direct 59 1 Yes. Good morning. MR. MORRIS: So, let's begin, Your Honor, with just a 2 3 little bit of background of Mr. Seery and how he got involved 4 in the case. 5 BY MR. MORRIS: 6 Mr. Seery, what's your current position with the Debtor? 7 I am the CEO, the CRO -- the chief restructuring officer -- as well as an independent director on the Strand Advisors 8 board of directors. 10 Okay. MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I'm going to ask Mr. Seery 11 12 to describe a bit for his background. For the record, you'll find that Exhibits 6X, 6Y, and 6Z, on the Debtor's exhibit 13 14 list at Docket 1822, the resumes and C.V.s of the three 15 independent members of the board. If Your Honor has any 16 question about their qualifications and their experience, that 17 evidence is already in the record. 18 THE COURT: Okay. 19 BY MR. MORRIS: 20 But Mr. Seery, without going into the detail of everything 21 that's on your C.V., can you just describe for the Court 22 generally your professional background, starting, well, with 23 your time as a lawyer? 24 I've been involved in the restructuring, finance, investing and managing of assets and banking-type assets for over 30 years.

2.4

I began in restructuring in real estate. Became a lawyer, and was a lawyer in private practice dealing with restructuring and finance for approximately ten years, in addition to time before that on the real estate side.

I joined Lehman Brothers on the business side in 1999, where I immediately began working on the -- with a distress team as a team member investing off the balance sheet, Lehman Brothers assets in various types of distressed financing investments. Bonds, loans, equities. In addition, then I became the head of Lehman's loan business globally. I ran that business for the number of years. Was one of the key players in selling Lehman Brothers to Barclays in a very difficult situation and structure.

After that, joined some of my partners, we formed a hedge fund called RiverBirch Capital, about a billion and a half dollar hedge fund in -- operating in -- globally, but mostly U.S. stressed/distressed assets that we invested in.

Oftentimes, though, we would run from high-grade assets all the way down to equities, different types of investors, different types of investments.

Thereafter, I left -- was -- joined Guggenheim. I left Guggenheim, and shortly thereafter became a director at Strand.

Q Prior to acceptance of the positions that you described

Appx. 04242

Seery - Direct 61 earlier, were you at all familiar with Highland or Mr. 1 2 Dondero? 3 A Yeah. I was, yes. 4 Q Can you just describe for the Court how you became 5 familiar with Highland and Mr. Dondero? 6 Highland was a customer of Lehman Brothers, and it was --7 particularly in the loan business. And the CLO businesses. Highland was run by Mr. Dondero, and I knew of that business 8 9 through that --10 (Interruption.) 11 MR. MORRIS: Can somebody please put their device on 12 mute? 13 A VOICE: That's Mr. Taylor. 14 THE COURT: Mr. Taylor, you were off mute, 15 apparently, for a moment. Make sure you're staying on mute. 16 Thank you. 17 MR. TAYLOR: Yes. Sorry, Your Honor. I thought we might have a hearsay objection. I wasn't sure what the answer 18 19 was going to be, so I wanted to be prepared to object. 20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. BY MR. MORRIS: 21 22 Q Did you know or meet Mr. Dondero in the course of what you just described? 23 24 Yes, I did. I believe we met once or twice over the years. There was a senior team member who handled the

Seery - Direct 62

Highland relationship. He was quite good, quite experienced, and he handled most of the Highland relationship issues. But Highland, we came across a number of times, whether it be in -- I came across a number of times, whether it be in specific investments we had where they would be either a competing party or holding a similar interest, whether they were a customer purchasing loans or securities, whether they were a potential CLO customer where we were structuring some assets for them.

- Q Okay. And who are the two other members of the independent board at Strand?
- 12 | A John Dubel and Russel Nelms.

- Q And had you had any personal experience with either of those gentleman prior to this case?
  - A I knew of Mr. Nelms and his experience as a bankruptcy judge in the Northern District of Texas, and I had worked on one matter with Mr. Dubel, but very, very briefly, while he was the CEO of FGIC, which is a large insurer in the financial insurance space that he was responsible for reorganizing and ultimately winding down.
  - Q Okay. How did you learn about this particular case? How did you learn about the opportunity or the possibility of becoming an independent director?
- A Initially, I was contacted by some of the creditors and asked whether I was interested, and I indicated that I was.

Seery - Direct 63 Subsequently, I received a call from the Debtor's representatives as well meeting the counsel as well as the financial advisor as well as specific members of the Debtor's senior management. Do you know how long in advance of the January 9th settlement you were first contacted? Probably four, four or five days at the most, but started working immediately at that time because it was a pretty complicated matter and the interview process would be quick because of the hearing date that was coming up. Do you recall the names of any of the creditors who reached out to you? I spoke to counsel for UBS. Certainly, Committee counsel. I don't recall if I spoke to anybody from Jenner Block in the initial interview. And then I spoke to representatives from your firm as well as Mr. Leventon and ultimately Mr. Ellington. Did you do any due diligence before accepting the appointment? I did, yes. Can you describe for the Court the due diligence you did before accepting your appointment as independent director? Well, I got the petition, I read the petition, as well as the first day, as well as the venue-changing motion. In addition, I went through the schedules. Ultimately, I took a look at and examined the limited partnership agreement of the Debtor, with particular focus on the indemnity provisions. I then sat down with the Committee to get their views as part of the interview process, as well as the Debtor's counsel and Debtor's representatives.

Seery - Direct

- Q Did you -- in the course of your diligence, did you come to an understanding or did you form a view as to why an
- 8 | independent board was being sought at that time?
- 9 A Yes, I did.

- 10 | Q And what view or understanding did you come to?
- A There was extreme antipathy from the creditors, as evidenced by the venue motion and the documents around that venue motion.

In addition, in the first day order, or affidavit, you could see the issues related to Redeemer and the length of time that litigation has been gone on, going on.

The creditors became extremely concern with Mr. Dondero having any control over the operations of the Debtor and wanted to make sure that either he was removed from that or that -- and someone else was brought in, or that the case was somehow taken over by a trustee.

- Q Did you form any views as to the causes of the Debtor's bankruptcy filing?
- A The initial cause was the entry or the soon-to-be-entered order related to the arbitration with Redeemer, but it was Seery - Direct 65 pretty clear from looking at the first day that there was a 1 2 number of litigations. The bulk of the creditor body was made 3 up of -- on the liquidated side was made up of litigation 4 creditors. And then the other creditors, the Committee 5 members, other than Meta-e, were significant litigation 6 creditors. 7 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I think Mr. Seery was sworn 8 in, but unless -- unless you -- if you think there's a need, 9 I'm happy to have you swear Mr. Seery in again just to make sure his testimony is under oath. 10 THE WITNESS: I was sworn in. 11 12 THE COURT: Yes, I swore him in. 13 MR. MORRIS: That's what I thought. That's what I thought. Somebody had made the suggestion to me, so I was 14 15 just trying to make sure, because I didn't want any unsworn 16 testimony here today. 17 THE COURT: We did. 18 MR. MORRIS: Okay. 19 THE COURT: We did. 20 MR. MORRIS: Thank you. Thank you. BY MR. MORRIS: 21 22 Ultimately, sir, just to move this along a little bit, do 23 you recall that an agreement was reached with the UCC and Mr. 24 Dondero and the Debtor concerning governance issues? 25 Yes, I do.

Seery - Direct

Q And did you accept your position as an independent director at Strand as part of that corporate governance settlement?

A That, that was part of the appointment. We -- the independent directors were brought in to take -- really, to take control of the company as independent fiduciaries. And the idea, I think, was that there was a Chapter 7 motion that was about to be filed by the Committee, or at least that was the representation, and the Debtor had a choice, they could either accept the independent directors or they could face the motion.

What actually happened was a little bit more complicated. The creditors and the Debtor agreed on the selection of Mr. Dubel and myself. And then because they couldn't agree on the third member of the independent board, they left it to Mr. Dubel and myself to actually come up with a process, interview candidates, and make that selection, which we did, which ultimately became Mr. Nelms.

- Q And did all of this take place during that four- or fiveday period prior to January 9th?
- A It did, yes.
- Q Okay. And let's talk about the makeup of the board.
- 23 | You've identified the other individuals. How would you
- 24 | characterize the skillset and the capability of the
- 25 | individual?

Seery - Direct

A Well, on paper, I think it's a pretty uniquely-constructed board for this type of asset management business with the diversity of these types of assets and the diversity of issues that we had.

So, former Judge Nelms, obviously skilled in bankruptcy and the law around bankruptcy, but also very skilled in mediation, conflict resolution, and in particular his prepetition or maybe pre-judicial experience in litigation and litigation involving fiduciary duties we thought could be very, very important because of the myriad of interrelated issues that we could see that might arise.

John Dubel is an extremely well-known and respected restructuring professional. He has been dealing these kinds of assignments as an independent fiduciary for, gosh, as long as I can recall, but at least going back 15 to 20 years. He had experience in accounting, but he's also been the leader of these kinds of organizations going through restructuring in many operational type roles, and so he was a perfect fit.

And my experience in both restructuring as well as asset management and investment I think dovetailed nicely with the experience that Mr. Nelms and Mr. Dubel have.

Q Okay. Let's talk for just a moment at a high level of the agreement that was reached. Do you remember that there were several documents that embodied the terms of the agreement?

A Yes, I do.

Seery - Direct 68 And do you remember one of them was an order that the Court entered on January 9th? A Yes. MR. MORRIS: All right. Your Honor, just for the record, and we'll be looking at this, but that would be document Exhibit 5Q as in queen, and that's at Docket No. 1822. BY MR. MORRIS: Do you remember there was a separate term sheet, Mr. Seery, that was also part of the agreement among the constituents? Yes. There were -- I think there were a couple of term sheets and stipulations, but I do recall that there was some very specific term sheets with the terms. MR. MORRIS: All right. And we'll look at that one as well, Your Honor, but that can be found at Exhibit 50 as in Oscar. BY MR. MORRIS: And then, finally, do you recall that Mr. Dondero signed a stipulation that was also part of the agreement? Yes. That was absolutely key to the agreement for the creditors and perhaps the Court. But it was really -- it needed to be clear that he was signed on to this transaction. MR. MORRIS: Okay. And we'll look at that as well. That's Exhibit 7Q. And remind me, we'll move that one into Seery - Direct 69 evidence. 1 2 BY MR. MORRIS: Did you and the other prospective independent directors 3 actually participate in the negotiation of any aspect of this 4 5 agreement that you've generally described? Absolutely. Although we hadn't been appointed yet, these 6 7 agreements were going to be the structure with which -- or under which we would come in as independent fiduciaries. They 8 9 would govern a lot of our relationships. They would provide for the protections that we required and that I required. So 10 11 they were exceedingly important to me. 12 Can you describe for the Court at a general level your 13 understanding of the overall structure of the corporate 14 governance settlement? 15 From a very high level, the settlement was -- Highland 16 Capital Partners is a limited partnership. It's managed by 17 its general partner, Strand Advisors. Although Strand is the 18 GP, its effective interest in Highland is minimal, about .25 19 percent of the effective partnership interest. But it is the 20 general partner. So it does govern the -- the partnership. 21 We came in as an independent board that would oversee and 22 control Strand Advisors and thereby, through the general partner position, oversee and control HCMLP, the Debtor. 23 2.4 In addition, the Committee then overlaid what we could do with respect to how we operated the business in the ordinary

Appx. 04251

Seery - Direct

course in Chapter 11 with a specific set of protocols that governed certain transactions that we would have to get permission from either the Committee or the Court to engage in.

And in addition, Mr. Dondero, notwithstanding the insertion of the independent board at Strand, also had a set of restrictions around him, because, of course, not only was he the former control entity at Highland and Strand, he also had a hundred percent of the ownership -- indirectly, of course -- of Strand and could have removed the board. So there were restrictions around what he could do with respect to the board. There were also restrictions around what he could do through various entities to terminate contracts and --

- Q All right. We'll look at some of those in detail. Did, to the best of your recollection, did Mr. Dondero give up his position as president or CEO of the Debtor?
- 18 A He did, yes.

- Q And did he nevertheless stay on as an employee of the Debtor and retain a position as portfolio manager?
  - A He did. At the last second, I believe it was the night before, when we were actually in Dallas preparing for the hearing, but Mr. Ellington raised the concern that if Dondero was removed from not only the presidency but also the portfolio management position, potentially there would be some 71 Seery - Direct agreements that might or might not be subject to Court 1 approval that could be terminated and value would be lost. So 2 this was a very last-second provision. Obviously, the -- as 3 4 new estate fiduciaries, we didn't want value to be lost instantly for key man or some other reason. And the Committee 5 ultimately, or I guess you'd say reluctantly, agreed to that 6 7 because we just didn't have time to look at any of -- any such 8 agreements. 9 MR. MORRIS: All right. Let's -- can we put up on the screen, Ms. Canty, Debtor's Exhibit 5Q? 10 And this is in evidence, Your Honor. This is the January 11 12 9th order. And can we please go to Paragraph 8? 13 14 BY MR. MORRIS: Q Mr. Seery, you had mentioned just a few minutes ago that 15 there were certain restrictions that were placed on Mr. 16 Dondero. Does Paragraph 8, to the best of your recollection, 17 18 provide for the substance of at least some of those 19 restrictions? 20 A It does, yes. 21 And can you just describe for the Court your understanding 22 of the restrictions that were imposed on Mr. Dondero pursuant 23 to Paragraph 8?

Well, as I recall, when Mr. Ellington came in with the last-minute request, the Committee was extremely upset about

72 Seery - Direct it. We talked about it. Obviously, we, as an independent 1 board that was going to come in, didn't know the underlying 2 contracts and couldn't really render any judgment as to 3 4 whether there would be value lost. So, the Committee agreed, but they wanted to make sure that Mr. Dondero still reported 5 6 to -- directly to the board, and if the board asked Mr. 7 Dondero to leave, he would do so. Okay. Just looking at this paragraph, is it your 8 9 understanding that the scope and responsibilities of Mr. Dondero would be determined by the board? 10 Yes. 11 12 And was it your understanding that Mr. Dondero would serve without compensation? 13 14 Yes. 15 MR. DRAPER: Objection. Leading, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: Overruled. 17 BY MR. MORRIS: 18 Was it your understanding that Mr. Dondero's role would be 19 subject to the direct supervision, direction, and authority of 20 the board? 21 That's, you know, that's what the order says and that's what the agreement was. In practice, that was really going to 22 23 have to evolve because we were coming in very cold and 24 obviously he'd been there for --25 (Interruption.)

MORRIS: Was it also part of the agreement that Mr. Dondero would (garbled) upon the board's request? I think I got you, but yes, that's contained in this paragraph, and Mr. Dondero agreed to that. THE COURT: All right. Whoever LC is, your phone needs to be put on mute. Okay. Please be sensitive to keeping your device on mute except for Mr. Morris and Mr. Seery. All right. Go ahead. BY MR. MORRIS: Do you recall, Mr. Seery, whether there were any restrictions placed on Mr. Dondero's ability to terminate agreements with the Debtor? Yes. That was a very specific provision as well. Q Can we take a look at Paragraph 9 below? Is that the provision that you're referring to? That's the provision in the order. I believe there were other agreements -- certainly, discussion around it -- because it was an important provision because it had been borne out of some experience that Acis and Mr. Terry had had in particular.

So it was supposed to be broad and prevent both direct and indirect termination of agreements.

Q Okay. And do you know, do you recall that the definition of related entity is contained within the term sheet that you referred to earlier?

A It's a pretty extensive -- I recall the definition not specifically, but it's a pretty extensive definition. It includes any of the entities that he owns, that Mr. Dondero owns, that Mr. Dondero controls, that Mr. Dondero manages, that Mr. Dondero owns indirectly, that Mr. Dondero manages indirectly, and it really covers a wide swath of those entities in which he has interests and control.

MR. MORRIS: All right. Let's see if we could just look at the definition specifically at Exhibit 50 as in Oscar. And if we could just scroll down to the next page.

Now, this was -- this is part of the term sheet that was filed at  $\frac{1}{2}$

- Q Okay. In addition to what you've described, I think you also mentioned that there was a separate stipulation that Mr.
- 22 Dondero entered into as part of the corporate governance

75 Seery - Direct January 9th. 1 Q And what do you recall about that document as being a key 3 gating issue? 4 The key gating issue that I recall is that it had to be 5 signed. And I don't believe it was signed until that very 6 morning. 7 MR. MORRIS: All right. Can we call up Exhibit 7Q as in queen? 8 BY MR. MORRIS: Q All right. Is this the stipulation that you were 10 referring to? We can scroll down to any portion you want. 11 12 A I believe that is, yes. MR. MORRIS: Okay. Can we just scroll down to see 13 Mr. Dondero's signature? Yeah. That's -- okay. 14 15 So, that's dated January 9th. This was filed at Docket 16 338. It's on the Debtor's exhibit list as Exhibit 7Q. And the Debtor would respectfully move Exhibit 7Q into evidence. 17 THE COURT: Any objection? All right. 7Q is 18 19 admitted. 20 (Debtor's Exhibit 7Q is received into evidence.) 21 MR. MORRIS: Okay. 76 Seery - Direct stipulation? 1 Yes. 2 And as you recall, Mr. Seery, in the events leading up to 3 4 the entry of the order approving the settlement, was this one of the documents that was being negotiated among -- among the 5 6 parties? 7 Yes, it was. Okay. You mentioned that there were certain provisions of 8 9 the January 9th order that were important to you and the other independent directors. Do I have that right? 10 11 Yes. 12 MR. MORRIS: Let's see if we can back to Exhibit 5Q, please, Paragraph 4. 13 14 BY MR. MORRIS: 15 Okay. Paragraph 4, can you tell me what Paragraph -- what 16 Paragraph 4 is and why it was important to you? 17 Well, there really were four key, I guess I'll use the 18 term gating items again, for my involvement, and ultimately in 19 discussions with Mr. Nelms and Mr. Dondero -- Mr. Dubel, their 20 involvement in the matter. 21 Because of the litigious nature of the Highland operations 22 and the expectations we had for more litigation after taking a 23 look at the Acis case, we wanted to make sure that, as 24 independents coming into a situation with really no stake in the particular outcome, other than trying to achieve a successful reorganization, that we were protected. So, number one, I looked at the limited partnership agreement. I wanted to make sure that the LPA contained broad and at least standard indemnification provisions and that they would apply to the board.

Number two, because -- that then requires you to look at the indemnification provisions at Strand, because you're a director of Strand, the GP. So then we looked at those. I took a close examination of those. They looked okay, except Strand didn't have any assets other than its equity interest in Highland, and if that equity interest turned out to be zero, that indemnity wouldn't be very valuable.

So I wanted to make sure that Highland, the Debtor, guaranteed the indemnity (garbled) on a postpetition basis, so that if there were a failure of D&O, which I'll get to in a second, or it wasn't enough, that we would have a senior claim in the case, an admin claim in the case.

I then, of course, wanted to make sure that we had D&O insurance. This was very difficult to get, because, frankly, there's a Dondero exclusion in some of the markets, we've been told by our insurance brokers, and so getting the right policy that would cover the independent board was difficult. We did get that.

And then ultimately there'll be another provision in the agreement here -- I don't see it off the top of my head -- but

1 | a gatekeeper provision. And that provision --

- Q Hold on one second, Mr. Seery, because we'd want to scroll. So Paragraph 4 and Paragraph 5, were those, were
- 4 | those provisions put in there at the insistence of the
- 5 | prospective independent directors?
- A Yes. And remember, so the Paragraph 4, as I said, is the guarantee of Strand's obligations for its indemnity. Again,

  Strand didn't have any money, so the Debtor had to be the one purchasing the D&O for the directors and for Strand. So those are the two provisions that really worked to address my
- MR. MORRIS: Okay. Can we go to Paragraph 10, concerns about the indemnities and then the D&O.

- 13 | please? There you go.
- 14 | BY MR. MORRIS:

11

- 15  $\parallel$  Q Is this the other provision that you were referring to?
- 16 A This is. It's come to be known as the gatekeeper
- 17 provision, but it's a provision that I actually got from other
- 18 cases. Again, another very litigious case that I thought it
- 19 | was appropriate to bring in to this case.
- And the concept here is that when you're dealing with parties that seem to be willing to engage in decade-long litigation in multiple forums, not only domestically but even throughout the world, it seemed important and prudent for me
- 24 and a requirement that I set out that somebody would have to
- 25 come to this Court, the court with jurisdiction over these matters, to determine whether there was a colorable claim.

And that colorable claim would have to show gross negligence and willful misconduct, i.e., something that would not otherwise be indemnified.

So it basically sets an exculpation standard for negligence. It exculpates the directors from negligence. And if somebody wants to bring a cause against the directors, they have to come to this Court first and get a finding that there's a colorable claim for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

- Q Would you have accepted the engagement as an independent director without the Paragraphs 4, 5, and 10 that we just looked at?
- A No. These were very specific requests. The language here has been 'smithed, to be sure, but I provided the original language for 10 and insisted on the guaranty provision above to assure that the indemnity would have some support.
- Q And ultimately, did the Committee and the Debtor agree to provide all of the protection afforded by Paragraphs 4, 5, and 10?
- 21 | A Yes.

22 | Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, we're going to move on now to good faith, Section 1129(e)(3), just to give you a little bit of a roadmap of where we're going.

BY MR. MORRIS:

2.4

- Q Let's talk about the process that led to the plan that the Debtor is asking the Court to confirm today. Real basic stuff at the beginning. Can you tell me your understanding of the makeup of the UCC, of the Creditors' Committee?
- A The Creditors' Committee in this case has four members. It's UBS, the Redeemer Committee, which are former holders of interests in a fund called the Crusader Fund, which was a Highland fund, who had redeemed and then had a dispute with Highland.

And the next creditor is Mr. Terry and Acis. We generally group them as one, but the creditor is Acis.

And the fourth creditor is an entity called Meta-e, and they provide litigation support and technical support and discovery support in litigations for the Debtor, including in this case now.

- Q All right. Just focusing really on the early period, the first few months, can you describe the early stages of the negotiations with the UCC as best as you can recall?
- A Well, I think the early stage of the case wasn't directly a negotiation; it was really trying to understand as best we could the myriad of assets that we had here, the various businesses that the Debtor either owned, controlled, or managed, as well as the claims.

We went through a process of trying to understand each of the claims that the Debtor -- or against the Debtor that were represented by the Committee, as well as some other claims that were not on the Committee.

- Q Was the Debtor -- I mean, was the Committee initially pushing the independent board to go to a monetization plan, an asset monetization plan?
- A Very quickly and early on, the Debtor -- the Committee took a pretty aggressive approach with the Debtor and the independent board. I think the Committee's perspective, as articulated to me, and where -- at least how we took it, was that they'd been litigating for years and they sort of knew the situation and the value of their claims, that the Debtor was insolvent, in their view, and that we should be operating the estate in essence for the benefit of the creditors.
- A We disputed it. And the reason we disputed it was very straightforward. Save for the Redeemer claim, which at least had an arbitration award, Acis and Mr. Terry didn't have any

And what was the board's view in reaction to that?

20 | bankruptcy, and UBS, while it had a judgment, that judgment specific awards, notwithstanding the results of the Acis

21 | was not against the Debtor.

So our view was, until we have our hands around these claims and we determine what the validity is in our estate, that we would treat the Debtor as if it were solvent. We also wanted to assess the value of the assets. So, looking at the assets not just from a book value but what they might be really worth in the market.

- And did the board in the early portion of the case consider all strategic alternatives?
- I don't know if we considered every strategic alternative, but we certainly considered a lot of alternatives. 6
  - Can you describe for the Court the alternatives that were considered by the board before settling on the asset monetization plan?
  - Well, early on, you know, we looked at each of the -- what we would think of the large category types of ways to resolve a case. Number one, could we go through a very traditional reorganization with either stretching out claims to creditors after settlement or converting some of those to equity, getting new equity infusions? We considered those alternatives.

Number two, we considered whether we should simply sell the assets. That's one of the things that the Committee was pushing for. They could be sold to third parties. They could be sold individually. Mr. Dondero potentially could buy some of the assets. That'd be a reasonable reorganization in this case.

We also considered whether that, you know, we would just do a straight liquidation. Is there some value to doing -converting the case to a 7 and doing a straight liquidation?

We also considered a grand bargain plan, and this was something that I worked on quite a bit. The phrase is mine, although no pride of authorship, certainly, since it didn't work out. But that perhaps we could come to an agreement with the major creditors and with Mr. Dondero and then shift some of the expenses in the case out further to litigate some of the other claims while reorganizing around the base business.

And then, finally, we considered the asset monetization plan, and ultimately that evolved into what we have today.

Q Were there guiding principles or factors that the board was focused on as it assessed these different options?

A Well, the number one guiding principle was overall fairness and equitable treatment of the various stakeholders. So, again, at that point, we didn't know exactly what, if anything, we would owe to claimants like UBS or HarbourVest or even Mr. Terry and Acis. We had a good sense of where we would end up with Redeemer, I think, but we still had some options and wanted to negotiate the issues related to potential appeal rights that we had. So I think that was the

But that did evolve over time. Costs of the case were exceptionally high. And the reason they're so high is that Highland was run for a long time, at least from what we can tell, at an operating deficit. Typically, what it would do is run at a deficit and then sell assets to cover the shortfall, number one overall concern.

Seery - Direct

and it would defer a whole bunch of employee -- potential employee compensation. And because of the way the environment was going, particularly in the first half of the year, it didn't look to us like there was going to be any great asset increase that would somehow save us from the hole that was being dug, the considerable amount of expenses to run the case.

Q Did changing the culture of litigation factor into the path that the board considered?

A Well, we certainly looked at the way the company had run and why it got to where it is in terms of litigating. And not just litigating valid claims, but litigating any claim to the nth degree. And stories are legion, I won't talk about them, but of Highland taking outrageous positions and then pursuing them, hoping that the other side caves.

We determined that this estate couldn't bear that kind of expense, and it wasn't fair and equitable to do that anyway. So we wanted to attack the claims that we could -- and I say attack; try to resolve them as swiftly as we could -- protecting the Debtor's interests but trying to find an equitable resolution.

I'm not averse to litigating. And I think when there are claims that are legitimate, the Debtor should pursue them.

There's always -- a good settlement is always better than a bad litigation. But if there (indecipherable) to resolve them, we should -- we should pursue those. And if we have defenses, we should pursue those, and not just be held up because someone else is willing to, you know, take a more difficult position than we are.

But in this case, it really did cry out for some sort of resolution on many of these cases because they were far beyond -- far beyond the facts and far beyond the dollars. There was personal antipathy involved in virtually every one of the unlitigated or unliquidated Committee cases.

- Q Did the board, as it was assessing the various strategic alternatives, consider maximization of the value?
- A Always number one was, can we maximize value? But that has to be done within the context of the risk you're taking and the time it takes. So, not all wine ages well in a cave and not all investments get to be more valuable over time. We wanted to look at each individual asset that the Debtor had, each claim that the Debtor had, each defense that the Debtor had, and consider the time and the costs and then try to find the best way to maximize value with those multiple considerations.
- Q How about the role and support of the UCC, how did that factor into the decision-making, the Debtor's decision-making as to what plan to pursue?
- A Well, you know, the decision-making with the UCC was cumbersome and oftentimes difficult. Sometimes our relations were very contentious, and sometimes they continue to be. But the Committee had significant oversight because of the protocols that had been agreed to. Some of the disputes we had with the Committee found their way into the court. Those time and that cost, some of which we won, some of which we lost, but those factored into our analysis.

But eventually we knew that we were going to need to get, you know, some significant portion of the Committee to agree, because, at minimum, Meta-e had a liquidated claim, and Redeemer was very close to fully liquidated, so we were going to need support from the Committee with whatever we tried to push through. And so that's how we negotiated with the Committee from that perspective.

- Q Is it fair to say that the Debtor and the Committee's interests because aligned upon approval of the disclosure statement back at the end of November?
- A I don't think they became perfectly aligned, because we still have, you know, some disputes around, you know, implementation and things like the employee releases, which were very important to me. But I think we're largely aligned and that the Committee is supportive, as Mr. Clemente said at the start of this hearing, of the plan. We negotiated at arm's length with them about most of the provisions. I would say virtually everything was a relatively significant negotiation, or at least there was a good faith exchange of views on each side and assessment of legal and financial risks. And I think at this point they're largely in support of the plan.

Q All right. Let's -- you mentioned the grand bargain, and I just want to spend a few minutes talking about that, how that evolved. Focusing your attention in the kind of late spring/early summer, can you tell me what efforts you and the board made in trying to achieve a grand bargain in that early part of the case?

A Well, we had -- at that point, we had reached agreement, at least in principle, with Redeemer. And the thought was -- my thought was that we could construct a plan, understanding what the cash flows looked like and what we thought the base value of the asset looked like -- and those are not just the assets that are tangible assets, but the notes that are collectible by the Debtor as well -- and then engage with UBS in particular. Redeemer. To some degree, Mr. Terry. We had not yet reached any agreement with him. But UBS, we thought of as a slightly -- I don't mean this to be disparaging -- but a slightly more commercial player than Acis because of the history that Acis had to deal with and endure.

And we were hoping that we could get some sort of coalescence around an agreed distribution that would require those creditors to take a lot less than they might have otherwise agreed, Mr. Dondero to put in more than he otherwise thought he could put in or would be willing to put in, and then we would get out to Acis and the other creditors with a plan.

And so I built, with the team at DSI, a detailed model on how the distributions could work and what the potential timing could be, trying to, each time, move in a multidimensional way with UBS, Redeemer, Mr. Dondero, and to some degree Acis, around the respective issues for their claims.

Again, UBS and Acis had not been resolved and weren't close, but the thought was if we could get dollar agreements for distribution, perhaps we could then figure out how to construct settlements of their claims.

- Q During this time period, did you work directly with Mr. Dondero in the formulation of a potential grand bargain?
- A I did, yes.

Q And the model that you described, did that go through a number of iterations?

A It went through multiple iterations. I don't believe I ever shared the model with anybody. One of the reasons for that is I didn't want -- I felt I had -- if I was going to share it with Mr. Dondero, for example, I'd have to share it with UBS and I'd have to share it with Redeemer. And I wanted it to be -- I wanted it to be a working model with the team at DSI. In particular, we would make, you know, adjustments on an almost-daily basis.

Seery - Direct

Mr. Dondero had -- remember, he was still portfolio manager at that time. He also had a related-party interest, as people have seen from some of the litigation around the sales of securities. He had access and was receiving emails from the team as well as from the finance team. So he had access to the information at that point and had a view around the value. And this was more trying to adjust what those distributions would look like depending on the amounts that he would be willing to contribute.

- Q Moving on in time, did there come a time when the Debtor participated in a mediation with certain of the major constituents in the case?
- A Yes. That was towards the end of the summer.
  - Q And during that mediation, did the concept of a grand bargain, was that put on the table? Without discussing any particulars about it, just as a matter of process, was the grand bargain subject to the mediation discussions?

A Well, the mediation had multiple components, so the answer to the question in short is yes, but I'll go longer because I tend to. The grand bargain plan stayed in place, and that was going to be an overall settlement. The mediation was initially, I think, as a main course, focused on Acis, UBS, and then the third piece being the grand bargain. And if you could settle one of those claims, perhaps — obviously, if you could settle both of them, you could get to then focusing on the grand bargain.

But even before we got to mediation, the idea of the monetization plan had also been put forth. Notwithstanding that it wasn't my idea, I actually thought that it was a good idea, ultimately. Didn't initially. And the reason for that is that it set a marker for what a base expectation could be for the creditors and just for Mr. Dondero. And knowing that that was out there, at least with them, that could hopefully be a catalyst in the mediation for folks to say, let's see if we can get our claims done and get a grand bargain done, because if we don't we have this Debtor monetization plan. And by that -- at that point, I don't think we had much agreement with the Committee on anything, and certainly with Mr. Dondero, on -- on a monetization plan. All right. And let's just bring it forward from the fall, post-mediation, to the present. Has -- has -- have you and the board continued discussing with Mr. Dondero the

A Well, it's shifted. So, the grand bargain discussions really -- you had multiple phases. So, you had pre-mediation. There was the grand bargain discussions that I just described previously that also involved UBS and Redeemer, and to some degree Acis and Mr. Terry. Then you have the mediation, which is much more focused on the claims and whether they can fit into the grand bargain with Mr. Dondero.

And the way that was conducted was a little bit more separated, meaning the parties would talk to the mediator, the mediator would then go and talk to other parties and try to work a settlement on each of those components.

Subsequent to the mediation where we reached the agreement with Acis and Mr. Terry, and we ultimately in that timeframe banged out the final terms of our agreement with Redeemer, we engaged with Mr. Dondero around -- I wouldn't call it the grand bargain, but a different plan. By that point, the monetization plan had started to gain some traction with the creditor group, and Mr. Dondero and his counsel, I believe, focused on the potential of what was referred to as a pot plan. And while it has the -- it could have the ability of being a resolution plan, it wasn't the grand bargain plan that I had initially envisioned. And pot plan was really a misnomer, because it didn't have a whole pot, so -- so it's a little bit of a hybrid.

- Q Did the board spend time during its meetings discussing various pot plan proposals that had been put forth by Mr. Dondero?
- A Oh, absolutely. And not only the board. I mean, we did our own work as an independent board and then brought in our professional advisors, both your firm and the DSI folks, to go through analytics around the pot plan, and even before that,

25 the other plan alternatives, but we had direct discussions

Seery - Direct 92 with Mr. Dondero and his counsel. 1 And in the last couple of months, has the board listened 2 to presentations that were made by Mr. Dondero and his counsel 3 4 concerning various forms of the pot plan? Yes. At least two or three. 5 6 And during this time, has the board and the Debtor 7 communicated with the Committee concerning different iterations of the proposed pot plan? 8 9 Yes. We've had continual discussions with the Committee regarding the various iterations of the potential grand 10 bargain all the way through the pot plan. 11 12 Q And during this process, did the Debtor provide Mr. Dondero and his counsel with certain financial information 13 14 that had been requested? 15 Yes. As I said, up 'til the point where he resigned and 16 was then ultimately, at the end of the year, removed from the 17 office, he had access to financial information related to the Debtor and even got the information from the financial group. 18 19 Subsequent to that, we've provided him with requests -- with 20 financial information that was requested by his counsel. 21 Okay. Were your efforts at the grand bargain or the 22 pursuit of the pot plan successful? 23 No, they were not. 24 Do you have an understanding as to -- just, again, without going into -- into details about any particular proposal, do you have an understanding as to what the barrier was to success?

- A The grand bargain, we just never got the traction that we needed to get that going and the sides were just far -- too far apart. And the pot plan, similarly. Our discussions with Mr. Dondero and the Committee, they're -- they're very far apart.
- Q And is it fair to say that the Committee's lack of support in either the grand bargain or the pot plan is the principal cause as to why we're not talking about that today?
- A Well, it's -- it -- right now, we've got the plan that's on file, the monetization plan. The monetization plan has gone out for creditor vote and has received support. It distributes, we think, equitably, as well as a significant amount of distributions to unsecured creditors. And there really isn't an alternative that we see, based upon the numbers I've seen, that competes with it or has any traction with the largest creditors.
- Q All right. So, now we've talked about various proposals or alternatives that were considered by the board, including the grand bargain and the pot plan. Let's spend some time talking about the plan that is before the Court today and how we got here. And I'd like to take you really back to the beginning, if I may.

25 Tell us, tell the Court just what the board was doing in the early months after getting appointed, because I think context is important here. What were you all doing the first few months of the case?

A Well, the first few months, we really were drinking from the proverbial fire hose, trying to get an understanding of the business, how it had been managed previously, what the issues related to the different parts of the business were. And then an understanding of each of the employees that were working under us, what their roles were, how they performed them, who sat where with respect to each of the assets, what the contracts looked like, whether they be shared service or management agreements. And then we started looking at the individual assets in terms of value.

At the same time, we were trying to get up to speed on the complex nature of the claims that were in the case. The liquidated claims were relatively easy, but there had been a significant amount of transfers in and out of the Debtor, and then there's a myriad of relationships involving related entities that we had to understand, both with respect to the claims as well as with respect to the assets.

And so that -- those were the main things we were doing for those first few months in the case.

- Q Just a couple months into the case, the COVID pandemic reared its head. Do you recall that?
- A Yes. We had been in Dallas every day working up 'til the time of the COVID and some of the shutdown orders, particularly in the Northeast, and so that changed the dynamic of how we could function every day.

Notwithstanding that, we -- we were able to manage from afar, and ultimately, when there were some cases in the office of COVID, we -- on the Highland side, not the related entity side, but on the Highland side -- we determined that the staff and the team should work from home, which they were able to do quite well.

- Okay. In those early months, do you recall that there was a substantial erosion of value, at least as of the time you were appointed in those first three or four months?
- There was. And I think we've heard some -- some noise about what that value was and the drop in the asset value as opposed to net value. But the asset value did, did drop significantly.
- 17 Can you describe for the Court your recollection as to the 18 causes of the drop in the value that you just descried?
- 19 Yes. The number one drop was a reservation that the board
- 20 took for a receivable from an entity called Hunter Mountain. The quick version of this is that Hunter Mountain owns
- 22 Highland. As I mentioned, while Strand is the GP, it only has
- 23 a quarter-percent interest in Highland. The vast majority of
- 24 the interests are owned by an entity called the Hunter
- Mountain Investment Trust in a very complicated, tax-driven 25 structure.

2.4

Dondero and Okada transferred their interests in Highland at a high valuation to Hunter Mountain. Hunter Mountain then didn't have the money, so it, in essence, borrowed the money from the Debtor in a note to pay for those interests. There's a circular running of the cash, but we were not sure where, if any, where any assets are, if they would be sufficient. So we took a reservation of $58 million for that note.

The second biggest piece of the reduction in value was the equity that was lost in the Select Equity account. This is a Debtor trading account that was managed by Mr. Dondero. $54 million was lost in that account. Basically, it was really highly margined, very high leverage in that account when the market volatility came in. As it grew through January, February, March, more and more margin calls. Ultimately, Jefferies, which had Safe Harbor protections -- technically, the account was not a Debtor account, but they would have had it anyway -- they seized that account. $54 million in equity was lost in that account.

The next highest amount is about $35 million, but it's higher now. That's just the bankruptcy costs, where we have spent cash and Debtor assets in the case. It was about $36 to $40 million through the end of the year. That's now higher.

About $30 million was lost in paying back Jefferies on the asset side of the ledger in the Highland internal equity account. This was similar to the equity -- the Select Equity account, also managed by Mr. Dondero. Extremely highly-levered coming into the market volatility of the first quarter, which was exacerbated, obviously, by the COVID. That was about $30 million that was repaid in margin loan in that account.

In addition, $25 million of equity was lost in that account while Mr. Dondero was managing it. I took over effectively managing it in mid-March and worked with Jefferies to keep them from seizing the account. We've since gotten a bunch of value coming back from that account, but that was the amount that was lost.

About $10 million was lost in the Carey Limousine loan transaction. That is a -- an interesting little company. Has done a nice job -- management did a very good job coming into the year, and it actually had real value, notwithstanding the changeover to Uber in people's preferences. But with the COVID, it really relied on events, airport travel, executive travel, and that really took a bite out of it, although, you know, we're hoping to be able to restructure, we have restructured it to some degree, and we're hoping that there could be value there.

And then about $7 million was lost in equity in an entity called NexPoint Hospitality Trust. This is another extremely highly-levered hospitality REIT that NexPoint manages. It

Seery - Direct 98 trades on the Toronto Stock Exchange. And I think likely that -- it's got a lot of issues with respect to its mortgage debt. And because it was hospitality, it was really hurt by the COVID. And I think that's probably -- those numbers add up to north of $200 million of the loss. All right. Thank you for that recitation, Mr. Seery. So, turning to the spring, after all of those issues were addressed, at the same time you were working on the grand bargain, did the Debtor and its professionals begin formulating the monetization plan that we have today? I'm sorry, in the spring? I lost that question. I apologize. That's okay. After you dealt with everything that you just described, were you doing two things at once? Were you working on the grand bargain and the asset monetization plan at the same time? Yes, that's correct. All right. Can you just describe for the Court kind of, you know, how the asset monetization plan evolved up until the point of the mediation?

Yes. I alluded to it earlier, but because the Debtor was running an operating deficit, we were very concerned about liquidity. Highland typically runs, from a liquidity perspective and a cash perspective, very close to the edge. I don't feel particularly comfortable helping lead an organization that's running that close to the edge. And I was very focused on the burn that we had on an operating basis, as well as the professional cost burn, because for a case this size it was significant.

Appx. 04280

Seery - Direct

The rest of the board felt similarly, and one of the directors, and I'm not sure if it was Mr. Nelms or Mr. Dubel, came up with the idea that we needed an alternative to continuing to just burn assets while we were in this case. There had to be some sort of catalyst to get the parties, both Mr. Dondero as well as the creditors -- at that point, as I said, we weren't settled with Acis or UBS, and we weren't, frankly, close with either of them. And so we needed what -- what I think the -- the idea was that we needed a catalyst to have people focus on what the alternative was. Because continuing to run the case until we ran out of money was not an acceptable alternative.

What I didn't like about the plan was it didn't have anybody's support, and so I wasn't sure how we made progress with it without having some Committee member or Mr. Dondero in support of it. I was outvoted, although maybe I came around in the actual vote. But ultimately, I think it was actually a quite smart idea, because it did set the basis for what the case would be. Either there would be some resolution or it would push towards the monetization plan, and parties could then assess whether they liked the monetization plan or not. That if I was going to be the Claimant Trustee or the -- defending the, you know, against the claims, they would have the pleasure of litigating with me for some period of time. Or they could come to some either grand bargain or ultimately some other resolution.

And as we started to develop a plan and put more of a framework -- more flesh around the framework, it actually started to look more and more like a real viable alternative to either long-term litigation or some other grand bargain if we couldn't get there.

- Q And ultimately, did the board authorize the Debtor to file its initial version of the asset monetization plan at around the time of the mediation?
- A Yeah. We developed it over the summer and really fleshed it out in terms of how the structure would work, what the tax issues were, what the governance issues were. We did that largely negotiating with ourselves, so we -- we were extremely successful. And then we filed, we filed that plan right before the mediation.

And my recollection is that there was some concern from the mediators that they thought that putting that plan out in the public could upset the possibility of a grand bargain, so we ended up filing that under seal.

Q Do you recall what the Committee's initial reaction was to the asset monetization plan that you filed under seal?

A Well, initially, they -- the Committee didn't like it.

They didn't like the governance. They didn't like the fact that it set up for those creditors who didn't litigate the prospect of litigations to try to resolve their claims. It effectively cut out some of the advisory that the Committee currently had. The -- one of the driving forces behind the asset monetization plan and how we initially started it is we can't continue these costs, as I said. Well, an easy way to get rid of -- to reduce the costs is to get rid of half of them.

So if you could get rid of the Committee, effectively, and coalesce around an asset monetization vehicle, then if folks wanted to resolve their claim, you could. If you had to litigate it, you could, but you'd have one set of lawyers that the estate was paying for, one set of financial advisors the estate was paying for, as opposed to multiple sets.

- Q In addition to the corporate governance issues that you just described, did the Committee and the Debtor quickly reach an agreement on the terms of the treatment of employee claims and the scope of the releases for the employees?
- 22 | A No. Not very quickly at all.
  - | Q Yeah.

A You know, again, one of the issues in this case that drives perspectives is the history that creditors have in dealing with Highland and in dealing with many of the employees at Highland, you know, who had worked for Mr.

Dondero and served at his pleasure for a long time, and how they had been treated in various of their attempts to collect their claims. So the idea of giving any sort of releases to the employees was anathema to -- to many of the Committee members.

From my perspective, you know, releases are particularly important because there's a quid pro quo leading up to the confirmation of a plan, particularly with a monetization plan where it's clear that the employees are all going to be or largely going to be either transitioned or terminated. If they're going to keep working towards that, we either have to have some sort of financial incentive or some sort of assurance that their actions which are done in good faith to try to pursue this give them the benefit of more than just their paycheck.

And so we thought we were setting up the quid pro quo in terms of work towards the monetization, bring the case home, and you're entitled to a release, so long as you haven't done something that was grossly negligent or willful misconduct.

And the Committee, I think, wanted to have a more aggressive posture.

Q And did those disagreements over corporate governance and the employee releases kind of spill out into the public at that disclosure statement hearing in October?

A I think they spilled out at that hearing as well as in the

3 | hearing either the next day or two days later around Mr.

4 | Daugherty's claim. And again, it was -- it was contentious.

5 | I tend to try to reach resolution, but I tend to hold firm

6 | when I think that there's a good reason, an equitable reason to do so, and compromising that issue was very difficult for

9 Q But in the weeks that followed, did the Committee and the

10 | Debtor indeed negotiate to resolve to their mutual

11 | satisfaction the issues surrounding corporate governance and

12 | employee releases?

13 | A We did, yes.

14 | Q And were -- was the Debtor able to get its disclosure

15 | statement approved with Committee support in late November?

16 A We did, yes.

17 Q Can you describe for the Court generally kind of the 18 | process by which the Debtor negotiated with the Committee?

19 | I'll ask it as broadly as I can, and I'll focus if I need to.

20 | A Yeah. The process was usually in group settings with the

21 | independent directors, professionals, and the Committee

22 members and their professionals. Oftentimes, then, there

23 | would be certain one-off conversations if there was a

24 | particular issue that was more important to one Committee

25  $\parallel$  member or another, or if they were designated by the Committee to be the point on that. And so I negotiated on behalf of the Debtor, both collectively and individually, around these points.

The biggest issues related to governance of the Claimant Trust, the separation of the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Trust, which was important to me, the treatment of employees between the filing -- the time we came up with the case and when we were going to exit, and then how that release provision would work.

- Q Is it fair to say that numerous iterations of the various documents that embodied the plan were exchanged between the Debtor and the Committee?
- 13 | A Yes. There were -- there were dozens.
- 14 | Q Fair to say that the negotiations were arm's length?
- A Absolutely. Often contentious, always professional, but I do think that there were, you know, well -- good-faith views held by folks on both sides. And I think we were fortunate to be able to get resolution of those, because they were
- Q Okay. And ultimately, I think you've already testified, and Mr. Clemente certainly made it clear: Is the Debtor --

- 24 A My understanding is again -- and you heard Mr. Clemente --
- 25 | both the Committee and each of the individual members are supportive of the plan.

Q All right. Let's switch to Mr. Dondero and his reaction to the asset monetization plan. Can you describe for the Court based on your experience and your interaction with him what you interpreted Mr. Dondero's position to be?

A VOICE: Objection, hearsay, or --

MR. DRAPER: Objection, hearsay. Calls for speculation, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. I had direct discussions with Mr. Dondero regarding the plan, the asset monetization plan, as I mentioned, direct discussions regarding a potential grand bargain. The initial view from Mr. Dondero was, and he told me, that if he didn't get a plan that he agreed to, if he didn't have a specific control or agreement around what got paid to Acis and Mr. Terry and what got paid to Redeemer specifically, that he would, quote, burn the place down. I know that because it is, excuse the pun, seared into my mind, but I also wrote it down. And that was, you know, in the early summer.

We had subsequent discussions around the plan, and as we were talking about the -- about the grand bargain or -- the pot plan hadn't come out at that point -- even on a large call -- the plan initially called for a transition, and still does, of employees of the Debtor to a related entity to continue performing services that were under the prior shared service agreements that we were going to terminate.

But that transition is wholly dependent on Mr. Dondero. And we had a call with at least five to seven people on it where I said to Mr. Dondero, look, this is going to be in your financial interest to agree to a smooth transition. These people have worked for you for a long time. It's for their benefit. You portfolio-manage these funds. It's to the benefit of those funds to do this smoothly. And if there's litigation between you and the estate later, then those chips will fall where they may.

And he told me to be prepared for a much more difficult transition than I envisioned.

And I specifically said to him, and this one sticks in my mind because I recall it, I said, don't worry, Mr. Dondero -- I think I used Jim -- I will be prepared. I was a Boy Scout and we spend time preparing for these kinds of things. So we're -- we would love to get done the best transition we can, but we will be prepared for a difficult one.

So, from the start, the idea of the monetization plan was not something that obviously he supported. We did agree with -- after his inquiry or request with the mediators, to file it under seal while we went into the mediation.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And after, after that was filed in September, early October, did Mr. Dondero start to act in a way that the board perceived to be against the Debtor's interests?

A Certainly. I mean, he previously had shown inclinations of that, but that — it got very aggressive as he interfered with the trades we were trying to do in terms of managing the CLO assets. He took a position that postpetition, which was really one of his entities taking a position, that postposition a sale of life policy assets was somehow not in the best interests of the funds and that we had abused our position, notwithstanding that he turned it over to us with no liquidity to maintain those life policies. There were several other instances. And those led to the decision to, one, have him resign, and then ultimately, after the text to me that I perceived as threatening, and we've had subsequent hearings on it, we asked him to leave the office.

Q Okay. Let's move back to the plan here. Can you describe, you know, generally, if you can, the purpose and intent of the asset monetization plan?

A Well, very simply, the main purpose is to maximize value. This is not a competition between Mr. Dondero and myself. I have no stake in getting more money out of the maximization other than my duty to do the job that I was hired to do.

So our goal is to manage the assets in what we think is the best way to do that over time, and find opportunities where the market is right to monetize the assets, primarily through sales. There may be other instances, depending on the type of asset, whether a sale makes sense, if we can structure it through some kind of distribution that's more structured.

- Q We've used the phrase a bunch of times already. Can you describe in your own words what an asset monetization plan is in the context of the Debtor's proposal?
- A Well, it may be slightly an awkward moniker, but I think it's not completely different than what you'd see, in some respects, to a regular plan, where you equitize debt and you operate the business for the benefit of the equitized debt. Here, it's a little different in that we know exactly how we're going to move forward. We've effectively -- we'll effectively turn the debt obligations into trust interests and we will pay those as we sell down assets. So we've got it structured in a way where we can pivot depending on market conditions and we'll be managing certain funds that the assets sit in.

So there's really four assets where the assets sit, and we'll manage those. First are the ones that the Debtor owns directly. Second will be the ones that are in Restoration Capital -- Restoration Capital Partners. Third are the assets in a fund called Multi-Strat. Fourth is the direct ownership interest in Cornerstone, and technically (garbled) would be the -- would be the next one.

So we have the ability to manage these individual assets and then be able to sell them in what we determine to be the best way to maximize value, depending on the timing.

- Q And when you say that you're going to continue to operate the business, do you mean that the Debtor will continue to manage the assets you've just described in the same way that it had prior to the petition date?
- 7 It'll be a smaller team, but that's the Debtor's business. 8 So what we won't be doing are the shared services anymore. 9 That was part of the Debtor's business. But we will be managing the assets. So the 1.0 CLOs, we'll manage those 10 11 assets. The RCP assets, we'll manage those assets. The 12 Trussway Holdings assets, we'll managing those assets. Each of them is a little bit different. There's things as diverse 13 as operating companies to real estate. We'll operate, subject 14 15 to final agreement, but the Longhorn A and B, which are 16 separate accounts that are -- were funded and are controlled 17 by the largest -- one of the largest investors in the world. 18 And so they have agreed that we should manage those assets for

So we're -- that's the business that the Debtor is in. It won't be doing all of the businesses that the Debtor was in before, like the shared services, but the management of the assets will be very similar.

Q And why do these funds and these assets need continued management? Why aren't you just selling them?

Appx. 04291

Seery - Direct

A Well, in some respects, they could just be sold, but the -- we believe that the value would be a lot lower. So, a lot of them are complex. The time to sell them may not be now. Some will require restructuring in some way, whether -- not through a reorganization process, but some sort of structural treatment to how the obligations at the individual asset are treated, or the equity at the individual asset. So we're going to manage each of them and look for market opportunities where we think the value can be maximized.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I'm about to switch to another topic. We have been going for a little bit more than two and a half hours. I'm happy to just continue if you and the witness are, but I just wanted to give you a head's up that I'm about to switch topics. If you wanted to take a short break, we could. If you want me to continue, I'm happy to do that, too.

THE COURT: Well, let me ask you, how much longer do you think you're going to take overall with Mr. Seery?

MR. MORRIS: I think I'll probably have another hour to an hour and a half, Your Honor. We want to make a complete factual record here.

THE COURT: All right. Well, it's 12:07 Central time. Why don't we take a 30-minute lunch break, okay? Can everybody do their lunch snack that fast?

MR. MORRIS: Sure.

Seery - Direct 111 THE COURT: I think that would probably be the way to 1 go. So we'll come back -- it's now 12:08. We'll come back at 2 3 12:38 Central time and resume --4 MR. MORRIS: Okay. 5 THE COURT: -- resume this direct testimony, okay? 6 So, see you in 30 minutes. 7 MR. MORRIS: Thank you very much. THE COURT: Okay. 8 9 THE CLERK: All rise. (A recess ensued from 12:08 p.m. to 12:44 p.m.) 10 11 THE COURT: We are going back on the record in the 12 Highland confirmation hearing. It's 12:44 Central time. took a little bit longer break than I said we would. 13 14 Mr. Morris and Mr. Seery, are you ready to resume? 15 MR. MORRIS: I am, Your Honor. 16 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. 17 THE COURT: Okay, good. A couple of things. I'm 18 required to remind you you're still under oath, Mr. Seery. 19 And also, just for people's planning purposes, what I intend 20 to do is, when the direct examination of Mr. Seery is 21 finished, I'm going to allow cross-examination of the 22 Objectors in the same amount of time in the aggregate that the 23 Debtor got, okay? So, Objectors, in the aggregate, you can 24 spend as long cross-examining as the Debtor spent examining. I can figure out this is the most significant witness, so I'm

Seery - Direct 112 assuming that Debtor's other witnesses are going to be a lot 1 2 shorter than this, but --MR. MORRIS: Yes, I promise. 3 4 THE COURT: -- that's how we'll proceed. And I 5 expect to finish Mr. Seery today. So, all right. With that, you may proceed, Mr. Morris. 6 7 MR. MORRIS: Okay. DIRECT EXAMINATION, RESUMED 8 BY MR. MORRIS: 9 10 Can you hear me okay, Mr. Seery? Yes, sir. 11 12 Okay. Before we move on to the next topic, you spent some time describing the asset monetization plan. Would it be fair 13 to describe that as a long-term going-concern liquidation? 14 15 Long-term is subjective. We anticipate that we'll be able 16 to monetize the assets in two years. We could go out longer 17 to three. There's no absolute restriction that we couldn't 18 take longer, depending on what we see in the market, but the 19 objective would be to find maximization opportunities within 20 that time period. 21 Okay. So let's turn now to the post-confirmation 22 corporate governance structure. 23 (Interruption.) 2.4 THE WITNESS: Mr. Golub (phonetic), you should mute. 25 THE COURT: Yes. I don't know -- I didn't catch who

Seery - Direct 113 that was. But anyway, anyone other than --1 2 It's someone named Garrett Golub. A VOICE: 3 THE COURT: -- Morris and Seery, please mute. All 4 right. Go ahead. 5 MR. MORRIS: Okay. 6 BY MR. MORRIS: 7 At a high level, Mr. Seery, can you please describe for the Court the post-confirmation structure that's envisioned 8 9 under the proposed plan? At a high level, we anticipate reorganizing HCMLP such 10 11 that the current parties of interest will be extinguished and, 12 in exchange, creditors will get trust interests. There'll be 13 a trust that will sit on top of HCMLP and it will have an overall responsibility for the Claimant Trust, which will be 14 15 the HCMLP assets plus the assets that we move into the 16 Claimant Trust, depending on structural considerations. And 17 then a Litigation Trust, which will be a separate trust, and 18 that will roll up into the main trust. And the main trust 19 will be where the creditors hold their interests. And those 20 interests take the form of senior interests or junior 21 interests. 22 All right. You mentioned a Claimant Trust. Who is 23 proposed to serve as the Claimant Trustee? 2.4 I am. 25 And you mentioned a Litigation Trust. Is there someone

Seery - Direct 114 proposed to serve as the Litigation Trustee? 1 A gentleman named Marc Kirschner. He's been doing these kinds of things for a long time. 3 4 Is there going to be any kind of oversight group or committee? 5 There is an oversight committee that sits at the main 6 7 trust. Into it will report Mr. Kirschner and myself. It has oversight responsibilities similar to a board of directors in 8 terms of the operations of the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Trust. 10 11 Do you have an understanding as to who the initial members 12 of the Claimant Oversight Committee? The initial members will be each of the members of the 13 14 Creditors' Committee. So, UBS, Acis, Redeemer, a representative from Redeemer, and Meta-e, as well as an 15 16 independent named David Pauker. So that's the initial 17 structure. 18 And can you describe for the Court, how did Mr. Pauker get 19 involved in this? 20 A He was selected by the Committee. 21 Okay. Is there -- Meta-e is a convenience class claim 22 holder. Do I have that right? 23 Yeah. They're -- they -- as I went through earlier, they 24 had a liquidated claim for litigation services. So we expected that they'll be paid off rather early in the process.

Seery - Direct 115 At that point, we suspect they wouldn't -- they would no longer be an Oversight Committee member and they would be replaced by an independent. And do you have any understanding as to how that independent will be chosen? I believe it's chosen by the other members. Okay. Can you describe your proposed compensation structure as the proposed Claimant Trustee? My compensation will be $150,000 a month, which is the same compensation I have now. In addition, we'll negotiate a bonus structure with the Oversight Committee. And that will likely be a bonus not just for myself but for the entire team, depending on performance. Okay. And that -- and who is that negotiation going to be had with? The Oversight Committee. Okay. Are you familiar with Mr. Pauker's compensation structure? I -- I've seen it. I don't recall specifically. I think his -- from the models, I think he's about 40 or 50 grand a month, something along those lines. Okay. How about Mr. Kirschner? Do you recall -- let me just ask you this. Does it refresh your recollection at all

if I said that 250 in year one for Mr. Pauker?

Yeah. So maybe closer to $20,000 to $25,000 a month. And then Mr. Kirschner is a lower amount, but he would get a contingency fee arrangement somewhere dependent on the recoveries from his litigations.

- Q Okay. You mentioned earlier that the Debtor intends to continue operations at least for some period of time post-effective date. Do you have a view as to whether the post-confirmation entity will have sufficient personnel to manage the business?
- 9 | A I do, yes.

- Q And why is that? What makes you believe that the Debtor will have -- the post-confirmation Debtor will have sufficient personnel to manage the business?
  - A Well, we've gone through and looked at each of the assets and what is required to manage those assets. We have a lot of experience doing it during the case. The bulk of the employees, who do a fine job, are really doing shared service arrangements. The direct asset management group is a smaller group, and we'll be able to manage those with the team we're putting together.
  - Q Okay. How does the ten employees compare to the original plan that was set forth in the disclosure statement, if you recall?
  - A Well, we had less, and I believe the number was either two or three, along with me, and then using a lot of outside professional help. But we determined that we wanted to have a much more robust team, based on the litigation that we're seeing around the case and we expect to continue post-exit, so that the team can manage those assets unfettered.

In addition, we were taking on the CLO management, the 1.0 CLO contracts. These one -- as I've mentioned before, they're not traditional CLOs in the sense that they require the same hands-on management, but they do require an experienced team to help manage the exposures, most of which are cross-holdings in different -- in different entities or different investments that Highland also has exposure to.

- Q In addition to the assumption of the CLO management agreements, has the Debtor made any decisions regarding the possibility of hiring a sub-servicer?
- 14 A We have, yes.

Q And did that factor into the Debtor's decision to increase the number of personnel it was going to retain?

A Well, we determined we weren't going to hire a subservicer. And I'm not sure exactly when we made that determination. We do have a TPA, which is SEI, and that's a third-party administrator, to sift through the funds and provide accounting supporting to those, to those funds. So that — they will help. We also have an outside consultant that we're using, Experienced Advisory Consultants, who are financial consultants who've worked in the business. So we do have those.

But we didn't think that we would get a third-party subservicer, as was the case in Acis, and determined that wasn't in the best interest of the estate.

- Q Can you just shed a little light on what factors the Debtor took into account in deciding not to hire a subservicer?
- A Well, we primarily looked at cost, as well as control of the assets, and determined that that was -- those were in the best interests of the estate, to keep them managed internally. We reviewed that with the Committee, and they agreed.
- 11 | Q Okay.

- 18 | A We have, yes.
- Q And has the Debtor done any analysis to determine the likely recoveries under the plan?
- 21 | A Yes.
- Q Okay. Do you recall when these projections were first prepared?
- A We started working on projections in the fall, as we were developing the monetization plan. We filed projections, I

Seery - Direct 119 believe, in November. We've subsequently updated those 1 2 projections based on the claims, market condition, and value 3 of the assets. Okay. Can you describe for the Court the process by which 10 this set of projections and the November projections were 11 12 prepared? How did the Debtor go about preparing these 13 projections? 14 A Yeah. These are prepared what I would call bottoms-up. 15 So what we did was we looked at each of the assets that the 16 Debtor owns or manages or has a direct or indirect interest 17 in, used the values that we have for those assets, because we 18 do keep valuations for each of the assets that the Debtor owns 19 or manages in the ordinary course of business. We then 20 adjusted those depending on what we saw as the outcomes for 21 the case, either a plan outcome or a liquidation outcome, and 22 then rolled those into the -- into the numbers that you see 23 here. 24 So the 257 and change. And please excuse my eyesight. 25 I'm going to make this bigger. The 257 is the estimated

Seery - Direct 121 proceeds from monetization. Above that, you see cash. our estimated cash at 131. And we monitor those, those values daily. And were these projections prepared under your supervision? They were, yes. Okay. And who was involved in the preparation of this document and other iterations of the projections? The team at DSI. Obviously, myself; the team at DSI; as well as the, at least from a review perspective, counsel. All of these contain various assumptions. Do I have that right? A Yes. MR. MORRIS: Can we go to the prior page, please, I think is where the assumptions are? And let's just look at a few of them. Okay. Can we make that a little bigger, La Asia? Okay. Good. BY MR. MORRIS: Why does the Debtor's projections and liquidation analysis contain any assumptions? Why, why include assumptions? Well, all projections contain assumptions. So an assumption -- I was strangely asked the question at deposition, what does that mean? It's a thing or fact that one accepts as true for the purposes of analysis. And so in terms of looking out into the future as to what the potential operation expenses will be and what the potential recoveries will be, one has to make assumptions in order to be able to 3 compare apples to apples.

- And do you believe that these assumptions are reasonable?
- Yes. It would make no sense to have assumptions that aren't reasonable. I mean, and we've all seen that with analysis through our respective careers. It really should be grounded in some fact and a reasonable projection on what can happen in the future, based upon experience.
- Okay. And have you personally vetted each of the 10 11 assumptions on this page?

12 Yes.

- Okay. Let's just look at a few of them. Let's start with 13
- 14 B. It says, All investment assets are sold by December 31,
- 15 2022. Do you see that?
- 16 Yes.
- 17 Why did the Debtor make that assumption?
- 18 We looked at a two-year projection horizon. We thought 19 that that was a reasonable amount of time, looking at these 20 assets, to monetize the assets. Remember that we did go 21 through a process of the case over the last year, and we did 22 consider monetization asset events for certain of the assets 23 throughout the case, some of which we were successful on, some
- 24 of which we weren't, some we just determined to pull back.
- But we do believe that, based upon our view of the market and

Yes.

Seery - Direct 123 where we think these assets will be positioned, that monetizing them over a two-year period makes sense. And is it possible that it takes longer than that? 3 It's possible. The -- you know, we would be wrong about 5 the market. The -- we could go into a full-blown recession. Capital could dry up. The financing markets could turn 6 7 negative. But they're extremely positive right now. Those things could happen. But we're assuming that they won't. 8 And is it possible that you complete the process on a more accelerated timeframe? 11 That's always possible. It's not, in my experience, a 12 good way to plan. Luck really isn't a business strategy. But if good opportunity shows up and folks want to pay full value 14 for an asset, we certainly wouldn't turn them away just so we 15 could stretch out the time period. 16 Is it fair to say that this projected time period is your 17 best estimate on the most likely timeframe needed? It's -- I think it's the best estimate that we have based upon our experience with the assets, again, and our projection 20 of the marketplace that we see now. If things change, we'll 21 adjust it, but this is a fair estimate of when we can get the 22 monetization accomplished. 23 Okay.) The next assumption relates to certain demand 24 notes. Do you see that?

124 Seery - Direct Can you explain to the Court what that assumption is and 1 2 why the Debtor believed that it was reasonable? 3 Well, the Debtor has certain notes that are demand notes. 4 These are all from related entities. Most of the notes, the 5 demand notes, we have demanded, and we've commenced litigation 6 to collect.) (And we assume that we're going to be able to 7 collect those. 8 (Three notes that were long-term notes -- these were notes) 9 with maturities in 2047 that had been stretched out a couple 10 years ago -- were defaulted recently. And we have accelerated those notes and we've asserted demands and we have commenced 11 12 litigation, I believe, on each of those last week to collect. 13 So we do estimate that we will collect on all of the notes 14 that we've demanded and that we've commenced action on. (So 15 the demand notes as well as the accelerated notes. The next, the next bullet shows there's one Dugaboy note 16 17 that has not defaulted. That also has a 2047 maturity. (I) 18 believe it's about $18 million. (And we expect that one to 19 stay current, because now I think the relater parties learned 20 that when you don't pay a long-dated note, it accelerates, 21 provided the holder, which is us, wishes to accelerate it, 22 which we did. (And so that note we do not expect to be) 23 collected in the time period. 24 Q Okay.

Seery - Direct 125 BY MR. MORRIS: 1 M relates to certain claims. Do you see that? 2 3 Yes. 4 Can you just describe at a high level what assumption was made with which -- with respect to which particular claims? 5 6 Well, we've summarized them there. And what we've assumed 7 is that, with respect to Class 8, IFA, which is a derivative litigation claim that seeks to hold, loosely, HCMLP liable for 8 obligations of NexBank, is worth zero. I think that's pretty close to settling. We assumed here $94.8 million for UBS, 10 11 which was the estimated amount, and $45 million for HarbourVest. 12 And when you say the estimated amount, are you referring 13 14 to the 3018 order on voting? 15 Yes. We just use the estimated amount in this projection 16 based upon the 3018 order. 17 Okay. And finally, let's look at P. P has a payout 18 schedule. Do I have that right? 19 That's an estimated payout schedule, yes. 20 And what do you mean by that, that it's estimated? 21 Based upon our projections and how we perceive being able 22 to monetize the assets and reach the valuations that we want 23 to reach, we believe we could make these distributions. 24 However, there's no requirement to make them. 25 So the first and foremost objective we have, as I said

Seery - Direct 126 earlier, is to maximize value, and not -- it's not based on a 1 2 payment schedule, it's based upon the market opportunity. And 3 we've estimated for our purposes here that we'll be able to 4 meet these distribution amounts, but there's no requirement to do so. 5 6 Q Okay. 7 MR. MORRIS: Let's go to Page 3 of the document, 8 please. BY MR. MORRIS: Can you just describe generally what this page reflects? 10 11 This is a comparison of the plan analysis and what we 12 expect to achieve under the plan and the liquidation analysis if a trustee, a Chapter 7 trustee, were to take over. And it 13 14 compares those two distribution amounts based upon the assumptions on the prior page. 15 16 All right. Let's just look at some of the -- some of the 17 data points on here. If we look at the plan analysis, what is 18 -- what is projected to be available for distribution, the 19 value that's available for distribution? 20 $222.6 million. 21 Okay. So, 222? And on a claims pool that's estimated to 22 be, for this purpose, how much? 23 $313 million. Q And what is the distribution, the projected distribution 24 to general unsecured creditors on a percentage basis?

Seery - Direct 127 On this analysis, to general unsecured creditors, it's 1 2 62.14 percent. But remember, that backs out the payment to 3 the Class 7 creditors of 85 cents above. 4 Okay. And does this plan analysis include any value for 5 litigation claims? 6 No, it does not. 7 And is that true for all forms of the Debtor's 8 projections? 9 That's correct, yes. Okay. And let's look at the right-hand column for a 10 11 moment. It says, Liquidation Analysis. What does that column 12 represent? 13 That represents our estimate of what a Chapter 7 trustee 14 could achieve if it were to take over the assets, sell them, 15 and make distributions. 16 Okay. And let's just look at the comparable data points

- Q Okay. And let's just look at the comparable data points there. Under the liquidation analysis, as of -- the January liquidation analysis as of last week, what was projected to be available for distribution?
- 20 | A A hundred and -- approximately $175 million.
- 21 | Q Okay. And what was the claims pool?
- A The claims pool was $326 million. Recall that that's a slightly larger claims pool because it doesn't back out the
- 24 | Class 7 claims.

19

25 | Q Okay. The convenience class claims?

- A Correct.
- 2 | Q Okay. And what's the projected recovery for general
- 3 | unsecured claims under the liquidation analysis?
- 4 | A Based on this analysis and the assumptions, 48 (audio
- 5 | gap).

- 6 Q Okay. Based on the Debtor's analysis, are creditors
- 7 | expected to do better under this analysis in the -- under the
- 8 | Debtor's plan versus the hypothetical Chapter 7 liquidation?
- 9 A Yes. Both -- both Class 7 and Class 8.
- 10 | Q Okay. Now, this set of projections differs from the
- 11 | projections that were included in the disclosure statement; is
- 12 | that right?
- 13 | A That's correct.
- 14  $\parallel$  Q Okay. Can we just talk about what the differences are
- 15 | between the November projections that were in the disclosure
- 16 | statement and the January projections that are up on the
- 17 | screen? Let's start with the monetization of assets, the
- 18 | second line. Do you recall if there was an increase, a
- 19 | decrease, or did the value from the monetization of assets
- 20 | stay the same between the November projections and the January
- 21 | projections?
- 22 | A They increased from November 'til -- 'til now.
- 23 || Q Okay. Can you explain to the judge why the value from the
- 24 | monetization of assets increased from November to January?
- 25 | A Well, really, it's the composition of the assets and their

1 | value. So there's four main drivers.

The first is HarbourVest. We had a settlement with HarbourVest, which include HarbourVest transferring to the Debtor $22-1/2 million of HCLOF interests. Those have a real value, and we've now included them in the -- in the asset pool. We've also included HarbourVest in the claims pool.

The second was we talked a little bit earlier on the assumptions on the notes. We previously had anticipated that, on the long-dated notes, a collection, we -- we'd receive principal and interest currently, but we wouldn't receive the full amount of the principal that was due well off in the future, and we would sell it a discount.

So the amount of the asset pool has been increased by $24 million, and that reflects the delta between or the change between what was in the prior plan, the notes paying and then being sold at a discount, and what's in the current plan, which include the accelerated notes, which is a $24 million note that Advisors defaulted on that we have accelerated and brought action on, as well as two six -- roughly $6 million notes, one from Highland Capital Real Estate and the other from HCM Services. So that's, that's additional 24.

In addition, Trussway, we've reexamined where Trussway is in the market, both its marketplace and its performance, and reassessed where the value is. So that has increased by about $10.6 million.

Seery - Direct

That doesn't mean that we would sell it today. It means that, when you look at the performance of the company, what we think are the best opportunities in the market. As we see the marketplace with managing the company over time, we think that that asset has appreciated considerably since November.

And then, finally, there were additional revenues that flow into the model from the November analysis which would be distributable, and those include revenues from the 1.0 CLOs.

- Q Okay. So that accounts for the difference and the increase in value from the monetization of assets. Is there also an increase in expenses from the November projections to the January projections?
- A Yeah. It's -- it's about -- it's around $25 million additional increase.
  - Q And can you explain to the Court what is the driver behind that increase in expenses?
  - A Yeah. There's several drivers to that. The first one is head count. So our head count, we've increased. As I mentioned earlier, we determined that we wanted to have a much more robust management presence. So we've increased the head count, so we have a base comp, compensation, about $5 million more than we initially thought.

Secondly, we have bonus comp. So we've back-ended -- structured a backend bonus performance bonus for the team, and that will run another $5 million, roughly.

Previously, we had thought about, as you mentioned earlier, the sub-servicing, but we've now talked about and we have engaged a TPA, SEI, as well as experienced advisors.

That's another $1 to $2 million.

Operating expenses have increased by about $8 million, based upon our assessment. The biggest driver there is D&O, which is up about $3 million. In addition, we've gotten -- we determined to keep a bunch of agreements related to data collection and operations. Those were requested by the Committee, but they also serve us in performing our functions. That's another couple million dollars.

My comp, my bonus comp was not in the prior model. So I have a bonus that has not been agreed to by the Court for the bankruptcy performance. This is not a future bonus. And we built that into the model. Obviously, it's subject to Court approval and Committee objection, and I suppose anybody else's objection, but we'll -- we'll be before the Court for that. But we wanted to build that into the model so that we had it covered in the event that it was approved.

Q Was there also a change in the assumption from November to January with respect to the size of the general unsecured claim pool?

A Yes. There have been -- there have been several changes that have happened, and we've added those and refined the claim pool numbers.

Seery - Direct 132 And are those changes reflected in the assumption we looked at earlier, Exhibit -- Assumption M, which went through certain claims that have been liquidated? Some, some are. That assumption, I don't believe, was -it's not in front of me, but wasn't up to date. So, that one, for example, assumed UBS at the 3018 estimated amount. We've since refined that number to reflect the agreed-upon transaction with UBS, which is subject to Court approval. Right. But before we get to that, for purposes of the January model, the one that's up on the page -- and if we need to look at the prior page --MR. MORRIS: Let's go to the prior page, the assumption. Assumption M. BY MR. MORRIS: Assume the UBS, the UBS claim at the $94.8 million, the 3018 number. Do you remember that? Yeah. That's, that -- that's the assumption in this model. I think back in November we assumed HarbourVest at zero and UBS at zero. So we've since -- we've since refined

Q And did the -- did the inclusion -- withdrawn. At the time that you prepared the November model -- withdrawn. At the time the Debtor prepared the November model, did it know what the UBS or the HarbourVest claims would be valued at?

those numbers, obviously, through both the 3018 process as well as the settlement with HarbourVest.

Seery - Direct 133 No. We just had our assumption back then, which was zero. 1 2 And now, obviously, we know. 3 And so the January model took into account the settlement 4 with HarbourVest and the 3018 motion; do I have that right? 5 That's correct. That's in the assumptions. And what was the impact on the projected recoveries to 6 7 general unsecured creditors from the changes that you've just 8 described, including the increase in the claims amount? 9 Well, when -- like any fraction, the distribution will go down if the claimant pool goes up. So, with the denominator 10 11 going up by the UBS and the UBS amount -- the UBS and the 12 HarbourVest amounts, the distribution percentage went down. Q Okay. I want to focus your attention on the second line 13 14 where we've got the monetization of assets under the plan at 15 $258 million but under the liquidation analysis it's $192 16 million. Do you see that? 17 Yes. Α 18 Q Can you tell Judge Jernigan why the Debtor believes that 19 under the plan the Debtor or the post-confirmation Debtor is 20 likely to receive or recover more for the --21 (Interruption.) 22 THE COURT: All right. Hang on a minute. Where is 23 that coming from, Mike? 24 THE CLERK: Someone is calling in. 25 THE COURT: Okay.

Seery - Direct 134 MR. MORRIS: Thank you. 1 THE COURT: Mr. --2 3 MR. MORRIS: Let me restate the question. 4 THE COURT: Yes. Restate. 5 BY MR. MORRIS: 6 Can you explain to Judge Jernigan why the Debtor believes 7 that the -- under the plan corporate structure, the Debtor is likely to recover more from the monetization of assets than a 8 9 Chapter 7 liquidation trustee would? Sure. My experience is that Chapter 7 trustees will 10 11 generally try to move quickly to monetize assets. They will 12 retain their own professionals, they will examine the assets, 13 and they will look to sell those assets swiftly. 14 The monetization plan does not plan to do that. I've got 15 a year's of experience -- a year now of experience with these 16 assets, as well as we'll have a team with several years at 17 least each of experience with the assets. We intend to look 18 for market opportunities, and think we'll be able to do it in 19 a much better fashion than a liquidating Chapter 7 trustee. 20 The nature of these assets is complex. Many of them are 21 private equity investments in operating businesses. Certain 22 of them are complicated real estate structures that need to be 23 dealt with. Some of them are securities that, depending on 24 when you want to sell them, we believe there'll be better times than moving quickly forward to sell them now.

So, with each of them, we think that we'll be able to do better than a Chapter 7 trustee based upon our experience.

The only thing that we're level-set with a Chapter 7 trustee on is that cash is cash.

- Q Do you have any concerns that a Chapter 7 trustee might not be able to retain the same personnel that the Debtor is projected to retain?
- A Well, again, in my experience, it would be very difficult for a Chapter 7 trustee to retain the same professionals, and typically they don't.

Secondly, retaining the individuals, I think, would be very difficult for a Chapter 7 trustee, would not have a relationship with them, and that gap of time and the risks that they would have to take to join a Chapter 7 trustee I think would lead most of them to look for different opportunities.

- Q Okay. One of the other things, one of the other changes I think you mentioned between the November and the January projections was the decision to assume the CLO management contracts. Do I have that right?
- A That's correct.

- Q And why has the Debtor decided to assume the CLO management contracts? How does that impact the analysis on the screen?
- A Well, it does add to the expense, but it also adds to the proceeds.

When we did the HarbourVest settlement, we ended up with the first significant interest in HCLOF. HCLOF owns the vast majority of the equity in Acis 7, and also owns significant preferred share interests in the 1.0 CLOs. And we think it's in the best interest of the estate to keep the management of those assets where we have an interest in the outcome of maximizing value with the estate.

In addition, we're going to have employees who are going to work with us to manage those specific assets, so we feel like that will be something where we can control the disposition much better.

There's also cross-interests that these CLOs have in -the 1.0 CLOs have in a number of other investments that Highland has. As in all things Highland, it's interrelated, and so many of the companies have direct loans from the CLOs.
We intend to refinance that, but we feel much more comfortable and feel that there would be value maximization if we're able to work directly with the Issuers as a manager while we seek in those underlying investments to refinance the CLO debt.

- Q Has the Debtor -- has the Debtor reached an agreement with the Issuers on the assumption of the CLO management agreements?
- 24 A Yes, we have.
  - Q Can you describe for the Court the terms of the

Seery - Direct 137 assumption? 1 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, this --2 3 THE WITNESS: Yes. 4 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, this is Davor Rukavina. I 5 would object to this as hearsay. 6 THE COURT: Well, he has not --7 MR. MORRIS: It's --THE COURT: He's not said an out-of-court statement 8 9 yet, so I overrule. Go ahead. 10 THE WITNESS: Yeah, we -- we are going to assume the 11 CLO contracts. We have had direct discussions with the 12 Issuers. They have agreed. 13 14 The basic terms are that we're going to cure them by 15 satisfying about $500,000 of cure costs related to costs that 16 the CLO Issuers have incurred in respect of the case, and 17 we'll be able to pay that over time. 18 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, this is Davor Rukavina. 19 would renew my objection and move to strike his answer that 20 they've agreed. That is hearsay, an out-of-court statement 21 offered to prove the truth of the matter asserted. 22 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Morris, what is your response? 23 MR. MORRIS: He's describing an agreement. 24 actually think it's in the Debtor's plan that's on file already. But he's describing the terms of an agreement. He's Seery - Direct 138 not saying what anybody said. There's no out-of-court 1 2 statement. It's an agreement that's being described. THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I overrule the 3 4 objection. 5 MR. MORRIS: Okay. 6 BY MR. MORRIS: 7 Does the Debtor believe that the CLO agreements will be profitable? 8 9 Yes. And why does the Debtor believe that the CLO agreements 10 will be profitable to the post-confirmation estate? 11 12 Well, we don't -- we don't break out profitability on a line-by-line basis. But the simple math is that the revenues 13 14 from the CLO contracts which will roll in to the Debtor from 15 the management fees are more than what we anticipate the 16 actual direct costs of monitoring and managing those assets 17 would be. 18 Okay. Are you aware that yesterday the Debtor filed a 19 further revised set of projections? 20 I am, yes. Α 21 All right. Let's call those the February projections. MR. MORRIS: Can we put those on the screen? 22 23 It's Exhibit 7P, Your Honor. 24 THE COURT: Okay. 25 MR. MORRIS: All right. I think that for some reason

-- yeah, okay. There we go. Perfect. Right there.

Your Honor, these are the projections that were filed yesterday. I'm going to move for the admission into evidence of these projections.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. TAYLOR: Your Honor, this is Clay Taylor.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. TAYLOR: We object. These were -- these were not previously provided. They were provided on the eve of the confirmation hearing, after the Debtors had already revised them once and provided those on -- after close of business on a Friday before Mr. Seery's deposition. And these were provided even later, certainly not within the three days required by the Rule. And therefore we move to -- that these should not be allowed into evidence.

THE COURT: Mr. Morris, what is your response to that?

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, first of all, the January projections were provided in advance of Mr. Seery's deposition and he was questioned extensively on it. These projections have been updated since then, I think for the singular purpose of reflecting the UBS settlement.

As Your Honor just saw, the prior projections included an assumption based on the 3018 motion. Since Mr. Seery's deposition, UBS and the Debtor have agreed to publicly

Seery - Direct 140 disclose the terms of the settlement, and that's reflected in 1 these revised numbers. I think there was one other change 2 3 that Mr. Seery can testify to, but those are the only changes 4 that were made. 5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Seery, what besides the 6 UBS settlement do you think was put in these overnight ones? 7 THE WITNESS: I believe the only other change, Your Honor, was correcting a mistake. In Assumption M, the second 8 9 line is assumes RCP claims will offset against HCMLP's interest in the fund and will not be paid from the Debtor's 10 assets. That hasn't changed. 11 12 Basically, the Debtor got an advance from RCP that was to -- for tax distributions, and did not repay it. The RCP 13 14 investors are entitled to recovery of that. So we had 15 previously backed that out. It's about four million bucks. What happened was it was just double-counted. 16 THE COURT: Okay. 17 18 THE WITNESS: So, as an additional claim, it was counted as $8 million. I think that's the only other change. 19 20 THE COURT: All right. I overrule the objection. 21 You may go forward. I admit 7P. 22 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor. 23 (Debtor's Exhibit 7P is received into evidence.)

MR. MORRIS: Can you just -- if we can go to the next page, please.

Seery - Direct 141 BY MR. MORRIS: 1 2 So, with -- seeing that the claims pool under the plan 3 previously was $313 million, and what's the claims pool under 4 the projections up on the screen under the plan? Two -- well, remember, there's 273 for Class 8, and then 5 6 you'd add in the Class 7 as well, which is the $10.2 million. 7 So the 273 went from 313 to 273 with that settlement. And is there any -- is there any reason for the decrease 8 9 other than the change from the 3018 settlement -- order figure to the actual settlement amount? 10 11 For the UBS piece, no. And then, as I mentioned, I 12 believe the other piece would have been that four million -that additional $4 million that was taken out. 13 And did those two changes have a -- did those two changes 14 15 have an impact on the projected recoveries under the plan? 16 Sure, particularly with respect to -- to the Class 8. 17 Those recoveries went up significantly because the denominator 18 went up. 19 Okay. Does the Debtor believe that its plan is feasible? 20 A Yes, absolutely. 21 And do you know whether the administrative priority and 22 convenience class claims will be paid in full under the 23 Debtor's plan? 24 Yes. We monitor the cash very closely, so we do have additional cash to raise, but we're set to reach or exceed that target, so we do believe we'll be able to pay all the administrative claims when they come in. Obviously, we have to see what they are. We will be able to pay Class 7 on the effective date. Any other distributions, we expect to be able to make as well.

So, and then it's -- then it's a question of going forward with a few other claims that we have to pay over time. We have the cash flow to pay those. Frontier, for example, we'll be able to pay that claim over time in accordance with the restructured terms. If the assets that secure that claim are sold, they would be paid when those assets are sold.

- Q Frontier, will the plan enable the Debtor to pay off the Frontier secured claim?
- A Yes. That's what I was explaining. The cash flow is sufficient to support the current P&I on that claim. We will be able to satisfy it from other assets if we determine not to sell the asset securing the Frontier claim, or if we sell the asset securing the Frontier claim we could satisfy that claim. The asset far exceeds the value of the claim.
- Q Has the plan been proposed for the purpose of avoiding the payment of any taxes?
- A No. We expect all tax claims to be paid in accordance with the Code, and to the extent that there are additional taxes generated, we would pay them.
  - Q Okay. Let's just talk about Mr. Dondero for a moment

Seery - Direct 143 before we move on. Are you aware that Mr. Dondero's counsel 1 2 has requested the backup to, you know, these numbers, 3 including the asset values? 4 It -- I'm not sure if it was his counsel or one of the 5 other related-entity counsels. 6 Okay. But you're aware that a request was made for the 7 details regarding the asset values and the other aspects of 8 this? 9 Yes. Those were -- were those formal requests or informal 10 11 requests? 12 They were certainly at my deposition. 13 Right. But you haven't seen a document request or 14 anything like that, have you? 15 No. 16 Did the Debtor make a decision as to whether or not to 17 provide the rollup, the backup information to Mr. Dondero or 18 the entities acting on his behalf? 19 Α Yes. 20 And what did the Debtor decide? We would not do that. 21 22 And why did the Debtor decide that? 23 Well, I think that's pretty standard. The underlying documentation and the specific terms of the model are very specific, and they are -- they are confidential business information that runs through what we expect to spend and what we expect to receive and when we expect to sell assets and then receive proceeds, and the prices at which we expect to sell them.

To the extent that any entity wants to have that information as a potential bidder, that would be very detrimental to our ability to maximize value. So, typically, I wouldn't expect that to be given out, and I would not approve it to be given out here.

- Q Did the Debtor disclose to Mr. Dondero's counsel or counsel for one of his entities the agreement in principle with UBS before the updated plan analysis was filed last night?
- 14 A I believe that disclosure was done a while ago, to Mr. 15 Lynn.
  - Q So, to the best of your -- so, to the best of your knowledge, the Debtor actually shared the specifics of the agreement with UBS with Mr. Dondero and his counsel before last night?
- 20 A Yes. I have specific personal knowledge of it because we 21 had to ask UBS for their permission, and they agreed.
- 22 | Q Okay.

- MR. MORRIS: All right. Let's move on to 1129(b),
  Your Honor, the cram-down portion.
- 25 | BY MR. MORRIS:

Seery - Direct 145 Are you aware, Mr. Seery, how various classes have voted 1 2 under the plan? 3 I am generally, yes. 4 Okay. Did any class vote to reject the plan, to the best 5 of your knowledge? 6 I don't -- I quess it depends on how you define the class. 7 I think the answer is that I don't believe that, when you 8 count the full votes of the -- the allowed claims and the 9 votes in any class, I don't believe any of the classes voted to reject the plan. 10 11 What type of claims are in Class 8? 12 General unsecured claims. 13 Q And what percentage of the dollar amount of Class 8 voted 14 to accept? 15 It's -- I think it's near -- now with the Daugherty 16 agreements, it's near a hundred percent of the third-party 17 dollars. I don't know the individual employees' claims off 18 the top of my head. 19 Q All right. And what about the number in Class 8? Have a 20 majority voted to accept or reject in Class 8? 21 If you include the employee claims -- which, again, we 22 think have no dollar amounts -- then I think it's a majority 23 would have rejected. The vast dollar amounts did accept. 24 Q Okay. Let's talk about those employees claims for a moment. Do you have an understanding as to the basis of the Seery - Direct 146 claims? 1 2 Yes. What's your understanding of the basis of the claims? 3 4 Most of the claims are based on deferred compensation, and 5 that's the 2005 Highland Capital Management bonus plan. And 6 that bonus plan provides certain deferred payment amounts to 7 the employees to be paid over multiple-year periods, provided that they are in the seat when the payment is due. That's the 8 9 vesting date. Okay. 10 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, just as a note-keeping 11 12 matter, the deferred compensation plan and the annual bonus plan are Exhibits 6F and 6G, respectively, and they're on 13 Docket 1822. 14 15 THE COURT: All right. 16 BY MR. MORRIS: 17 And Mr. Seery, are you generally familiar with those 18 plans? 19 I am, yes. 20 In order to receive benefits under the plans, are the 21 employees required to be employed at the time of vesting? 22 Yeah. Our counsel refers to them, various terms, but generally -- our outside labor counsel. They're referred to 23 24 as seat-in-the-seat plans, meaning that your seat has to be in a seat at the office at the day that the payment is due. If you're terminated for cause or if you resign, you're not entitled to any payment.

So either you're there and you receive it or you're not and you don't. The only exception to that, I believe, is death and disability. Or disability.

- Q All right. Did the Debtor terminate the annual bonus plan?
- 8 A Yes, we did.
- 9 Q And in what context did the Debtor terminate the annual bonus plan?
- A Well, we had discussion on it last week. As Mr. Dondero had also testified, the plan was to terminate all the employees prior to the transition. That's well known among the employees. The board terminated the 2005 bonus plan and instead replaced it with a KERP plan that was approved by this

- Q And what was your understanding of the consequences of the termination of the bonus plan for -- for purposes of the claims that have been asserted by the employees who rejected
- 20 | in Class 8?
- A It's clear that, under the 2005 HCMLP bonus plan, no amounts are due because the plan has been terminated.
- Q All right. Do you have an understanding as to when payments become due under the deferred compensation -- under the compensation plan?

Seery - Direct 148 I do, yes. 1 Α And when are they due? 2 3 The next payments are due in May. And what is the Debtor intending to do with respect to the 4 5 objecting employees? 6 The Debtor will have terminated all those employees before 7 that date. All right. So, what's -- what are the consequences of 8 their termination vis-à-vis their claims under the deferred compensation plan? 10 11 They won't have any claims. 12 Okay. So is it the Debtor's view that the employees who voted to reject in Class 8 have no valid claims under the 13 annual comp -- annual bonus plan or the deferred compensation 14 15 plan? 16 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, this is Davor Rukavina. 17 With due respect, Your Honor, these employees have voted. The 18 voting is on file. There has been no claim objections to 19 their claims filed. There's been no motion to designate their 20 votes filed. So Mr. Seery's answer to this is irrelevant. 21 They have votes -- pursuant to this Court's disclosure 22 statement order, they have votes and they have counted, and 23 now Mr. Seery is attempting to basically impeach his own 2.4 balloting summary. 25 THE COURT: Mr. Morris, what is your response?

MR. MORRIS: The point of cram-down, Your Honor, is it fair and equitable. Does -- does -- is it really fair and equitable to the 99 percent of the economic interests to allow 24 employees who have no valid claims to carry the day here? And this is -- that's what cram-down is about, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. I overrule the objection.

- Q Let's talk about Class 7 for a moment, Mr. Seery. That's the convenience class; is that right?
- 10 A That's correct.
- 11 | Q How and why was that created?
- A Well, initially, that was created because we had two types of creditors in the case, broadly speaking. We had liquidated claims, which were primarily trade-type creditors, and we had
- 15 unliquidated claims, which were the litigation-type creditors.
- 16 And so that class was created to deal with the liquidated
- 17 claims, and the Class 8 would deal with the unliquidated
- 18 claims, which were expected to, as we talked about earlier
- 19 with respect to the monetization plan, take some time to
- 20 | resolve.
- Q Was the creation of the convenience class a product of negotiations with the Committee?
- 23 A The initial discussion on how we set it up I believe was
- 24 generated by the Debtor's side, but how it evolved and who
- 25 | would be in it and how it was treated in terms of distributions was a product of negotiation with the Committee.

Q Okay. So how was the dollar threshold figure arrived at?

How did you actually determine to create a convenience class at a million dollars?

A It was through negotiation with the Committee. So this was one of those items that moved a fair bit, in my was one of those items that moved a fair bit, in my recollection, through the many negotiations we had, heated negotiations on some of these items, with the Committee.

Q And are all convenience class -- all holders of convenience class claims holders of claims that were liquidated at the time the decision was made to create the class?

A I believe so. I don't think there's been -- other than -- well, there -- we just had some settlements today, and I think that relates to the employees, but those would be the only ones that there would be disputes about, and that would roll into the liquidat... the convenience class.

Q Okay. Finally, is there any circumstance under which holders of Class 10 or 11, Class 10 or Class 11 claims will be able to obtain a recovery under the plan?

A Theoretically, there's a circumstance, and that is if every other creditor in the case were to be paid in full, with interest at the federal judgment rate, including Class 9, which are the subordinated claims. If those all got paid in full, then theoretically the junior interest holders could Seery - Direct 151 receive distributions. 1 However, based upon our projections, that would be wholly 2 3 dependent on a significant recovery in the Litigation -- by the Litigation Trustee. 4 5 Okay. Let's move now to questions of the Debtor release 6 and the plan injunction. Is the Debtor providing a release 7 under the plan? Yes. 8 9 Is anyone other than the Debtor providing a release under the plan? 10 11 No. 12 Who is the Debtor proposing to release under the plan? The release parties are pretty similar to what you 13 14 typically would see, in my experience, in most plans. You 15 have the independent board, myself as CEO and CRO, the 16 professional -- the Committee members, the professionals in 17 the case, and the employees that we reached agreement with 18 respect to certain of them who have signed on to a 19 stipulation, and others, get a broader release for negligence. 20 Okay. Is the Debtor aware of any facts that might give 21 rise to a colorable claim against any of the proposed release 22 parties? 23 Not with respect to any of the release parties. So the --24 obviously, I don't think there's any claims against me. But the same is true with respect to the oversight board, the independent board.

The Committee has been, you know, working with us hand-inglove, and I think if they thought we -- there was something there, we would have heard it.

With respect to the professionals, we haven't seen anything as an independent board.

And with respect to the employees' that -- general negligence release, these are current employees and we have been monitoring them for a year and we don't have any evidence or anything to suggest that there would be a claim against them.

- Q Are there conditions to the employees' release?
- A There are. So, the employee release, as we talked about earlier, was highly negotiated with the Committee. It requires that employees assist in the monetization efforts, which is really on the transition and the monetization. They don't have to assist in bringing litigations against anybody, so that's not part of what the provision requires. But it does require that they assist generally in our efforts to monetize assets.

We don't think that's going to be significant, but if there are individual questions or help we need, we certainly would reach out to them. If it's significant time, that will be a different discussion.

And then with respect to the two senior employees who

Seery - Direct 153 signed the stipulation, they have to give up a part of their distribution for their release. Q All right. I think you just alluded to this, but has the release been the subject of negotiation with the Creditors' Committee? Yeah. We've touched on it a bunch of times, and we certainly, unfortunately, let it spill over into the court a couple times. It was a hotly-negotiated piece of the plan. Okay. Has the Committee indicated to the Debtor in any way that anybody subject to the release is the subject of a colorable claim? Anyone subject to the release? No. Yeah. All right. Let's talk about the plan injunction for a moment. Are you familiar with the plan injunction? Broadly, yes. And what is your broad understanding of the plan injunction? Anybody who has a claim or thinks they have a claim will broadly be enjoined from bringing that, other than as it's broadly be enjoined from bringing that, other than as it's satisfied under the plan or else ultimately bringing it before this Court. And that's the gatekeeper part, which is a little bit of combining the two pieces.

- Q And what's your understanding of the purpose of the injunction?
- 25 | A It's really to prevent vexatious litigation. We, as independent directors, stepped into what I think most people would fairly say is one of the more litigious businesses and enterprises that they've seen. And we have a plan that will allow us to monetize assets for the benefit of the creditor body, provided we're able to do that and not have to put out fires every day on different fronts. So what we're hoping to do with the injunction is ensure that we can actually fulfill the purposes of the plan.

Q All right. Let's talk about some of the litigation that you're referring to.

MR. MORRIS: Can we put up on the screen the demonstrative for the Crusader litigation?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And Mr. Seery, I would just ask you to kind of describe your understanding in a general way about the history of the Crusader litigation.

MR. MORRIS: And, Your Honor, just to be clear here, this is a demonstrative exhibit. As you can see in the footnotes, it's heavily footnoted to the documents and to -- and, really, to the court cases themselves. The documents on the exhibit list include the dockets from each of the underlying litigations. And I just want to just have Mr. Seery describe at an extremely high level some of the litigation that the Debtor has confronted over the years, you know, as the driver, as he just testified to, for the decision to seek this gatekeeper injunction.

THE COURT: All right.

BY MR. MORRIS:

2.4

Q So, Mr. Seery, can you just describe kind of in general terms the Crusader litigation?

A Yeah. I apologize to the Redeemer team for maybe not doing this justice. But this is litigation that came out of a financial crisis upheaval related to this fund. Disputes arose with respect to the holders of the interests, which were the -- ultimately became the Redeemers, and Highland as the manager.

That went through initial litigation, and then into the Bermuda courts, where it was subject to a scheme. The scheme required or allowed for the liquidation of the fund and then distributions to the -- to the holders, and then deferred many of the payments to Highland.

At some point, Highland, frustrated that it wasn't able to get the payments, decided to just take them, and I think, you know, fairly -- can be fairly described, at least by the arbitration panel, as coming up with reasons that may not have been wholly anchored in reality as to what its reasons were for taking that money.

That led to further disputes with the Redeemers, who then terminated Highland and brought an arbitration action against Highland. They were successful in that arbitration and received a $137 arbitration award. And right up to the petition date, that arbitration pursued. When they finally got their -- the arbitration award, they were going to Delaware Chancery Court to file it and perfect it, and the Debtor filed.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Let's go to the next slide, the Terry/Acis slide. If we could just open that up a little bit. It's
-- as you can imagine, Your Honor, it's a little difficult to kind of summarize the Acis/Terry saga in one slide, but we've done the best we can.

BY MR. MORRIS:

- Q Mr. Seery, can you describe generally for Judge Jernigan, who is well-versed in the matter, the broad overview of this litigation?
- A There's clearly nothing I can tell the Court about the bankruptcy that it doesn't already know. But very quickly, for the record, Mr. Terry was an employee at Highland. He also has a partnership interest in Acis, which was, in essence, the Highland CLO business. He -- and he got into a dispute with Mr. Dondero regarding certain transactions that Mr. Dondero wanted to enter into and Mr. Terry didn't believe were appropriate for the investors.

Strangely, the assets that underlie that dispute are still in the Highland portfolio, both Targa (phonetic) and Trussway.

Mr. Terry was terminated, or quit, depending on whose side of the argument you take. Mr. Terry then sought compensation in the arbitration pursuant to the partnership agreement.

Ultimately, he was awarded an arbitration award of roughly $8

5 | million.
6 | When

When he went to enforce that -- that was against Acis.

When he went to enforce that against Acis, which had all the contracts, Highland went about, I think, terribly denuding Acis and moving value. Mr. Terry ultimately was able to file an involuntary against Acis, and after a tremendous amount of litigation had a plan confirmed that gave him certain rights in Acis and any ability to challenge certain transactions with respect to Highland that formed the basis of his claims in the Highland bankruptcy.

That wasn't the end of the saga, because Highland commenced a litigation -- well, not Highland, but HCLOF and others, directed by others -- commenced litigation against Mr. Terry in Guernsey, an island in the English Channel. That litigation wound its way for a couple -- probably close to two years, at least a year and a half, and ultimately was -- it was dismissed in Mr. Terry's favor.

While that was pending, litigation was commenced in New York Supreme Court against Mr. Terry and virtually anybody who had ever associated with him in the business, including -- including some of the rating agencies. That was withdrawn as Seery - Direct 158 part of our efforts working with DAF to try to bring a little 1 2 bit of sanity to the case. But it was withdrawn without 3 prejudice. 4 But ultimately, you know, we've agreed to a claims 5 settlement, which was approved by this Court, with Acis and 6 Mr. Terry. 7 All right. MR. MORRIS: How about UBS? Can we get the UBS 8 slide? 9 THE WITNESS: I should mention that there's other 10 litigations involving Mr. Terry and Highland individuals that 11 12 are outstanding, I believe, in Texas court. We have not yet 13 had to deal with those. BY MR. MORRIS: 14 15 Okay. Can you describe for the Court your general 16 understanding of the UBS litigation? 17 Again, UBS comes out of the financial crisis. It was a 18 warehouse facility that UBS had established for Highland. It 19 actually was a pre-crisis facility that was restructured in 20 early '08, while the markets were starting to slide but before 21 they really collapsed. That litigation started after Highland 22 failed to make a margin call. UBS foreclosed out -- or it wasn't really a foreclosure, because it's a warehouse 23 24 facility, but basically closed out all the interest and sought recovery from Highland for the shortfall.

Highland was one of the defendants, but there are numerous defendants, including some foreign subsidiaries of Highland.

That case wend its way through the New York Supreme Court, up and down between the Supreme and the Appellate Division, which is the intermediate appellate court in New York.

Incredibly litigious effort over virtually every single item you could possibly think of.

Ultimately, UBS got a judgment for $500-plus million and -- plus prejudgment interest against two of the Highland subsidiaries. It then sought to commence action up -- enforce its judgment through various theories against Highland. That is part of the settlement that we have -- it's been part of the lift stay motion here, the 3019, as well as the 3018, and as well as the ultimate settlement we've discussed today. Okay. Moving on to Mr. Daugherty, can you describe for the Court your understanding of the Daugherty litigation? The Daugherty litigation goes back even further. It did -- I think the original disputes were -- or, again, started to happen between Mr. Daugherty and Mr. Dondero even prior to the crisis, but Mr. Dondero -- Daugherty certainly stayed with Highland post-crisis. And then when Mr. Daugherty was severed or either resigned or terminated from his position, there was various litigations that began between the parties very intensely in state court, one of the more nasty litigations that you can imagine, replete with salacious allegations and press releases.

That litigation then led to an award originally for Mr.

Daugherty from HERA, which was an entity that had assets that

Mr. Daugherty alleges were stripped. Mr. Daugherty had to pay a judgment against Highland. Ultimately, litigations were commenced in both the state court and the Delaware Chancery

Court. Those litigations, many of those continue, because they're not just against the entities but specific individuals. Mr. Daugherty got a voting -- a claim allowed for voting purposes in our case of $9.1 million, and we've since reached an agreement with Mr. Daugherty on his claim, save for a tax case which we announced earlier that relates to compensation, claimed compensation with respect to a tax distribution, which we have defenses for and he has claims for.

MR. MORRIS: All right. We can take that down, please.

BY MR. MORRIS:

- Q And let's just talk for a few minutes about some of the things that have happened in this case. Did Mr. Dondero engage in conduct that caused the Debtor to seek and obtain a temporary restraining order?
- 23 | A Yes, he did.
- Q And did the Debtor -- did Mr. Dondero engage in conduct that caused the Debtor to seek and obtain a preliminary Seery - Direct 161 injunction against him? 1 Yes. 2 And has the Debtor filed a motion to hold Mr. Dondero in 3 4 contempt for violation of the TRO? 5 Yes. 6 Are you aware that -- of the CLO-related motion that was 7 filed in mid-December? It's similar in that these are controlled entities that 8 brought similar types of claims against the Debtor and interfered in similar ways, albeit not as directly threatening 10 with respect to the personnel of the Debtor. 11 12 Q Okay. And you're aware of how that -- that motion was 13 resolved? I know we resolved it, and I'm drawing a blank on that. 14 15 But --16 All right. Are you aware, did Mr. Daugherty also object 17 to the Acis and HarbourVest settlements, or at least either 18 him or entities acting on his behalf? 19 A I think you meant Mr. Dondero. I don't believe Mr. 20 Daugherty did. 21 You're right. Thank you. Let me ask the question again. 22 Thank you for the clarification. We're almost done. To the 23 best of your knowledge, did Mr. Dondero or entities that he 24 controls file objections to the Acis and HarbourVest settlements?

Seery - Direct 162 Yes, they did. 1 Α And we're here today with this long recitation because the 2 remaining objectors are all Mr. Dondero or entities owned or 3 controlled by him; is that right? 4 5 That's correct. 6 All right. 7 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I didn't have a chance to object in time. Entities owned or controlled by Mr. Dondero. 8 There's no evidence of that with respect to at least three of my clients, and this witness has not been asked predicate 10 11 questions to lay a foundation. Mr. Dondero does not own or 12 control the three retail (inaudible). So I move to strike 13 that answer. MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I withdraw with respect to 14 15 the three funds. It's fine. 16 THE COURT: All right. With that withdrawal, then I 17 think that resolves the objection. 18 MR. MORRIS: Uh, --19 THE COURT: Or I overrule the remaining portion. 20 Okay. Go ahead. 21 MR. RUKAVINA: That does, Your Honor. Thank you. 22 BY MR. MORRIS: Are -- are -- is everything that you just described, Mr. 23 24 Seery, the basis for the Debtor's request for the gatekeeper and injunction features of the plan?

A Well, everything I described are a part of the basis for that. I didn't describe every single basis with respect to why those --

Q So what are -- what are the other reasons that the Debtor is seeking the gatekeeper and injunction provisions in the plan?

A We really do need to be able to operate the business and monetize the assets without direct interference and litigation threats. We didn't go through some of the specifics, and I hesitate to burden the Court again, but the email to me, the email to Mr. Surgent, the testimony threatening -- effectively threatening Mr. Surgent, in my opinion, by Mr. Dondero, in the court in previous weeks, statements by his counsel indicating that Mr. Dondero is going to sue me for hundreds of millions of dollars down the road.

I mean, this is nonstop. I'm an independent fiduciary.

I'm trying to maximize value for the estate. I've got some guy who's threatening to sue me? It's absurd.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I have no further questions, but what I would respectfully request is that we take just a short five-minute break. I'd like to just confer with my colleagues before I pass the witness.

Seery - Direct 166 Debtor should resolicit because their -- their -- the projections in the November disclosure statement were misleading? I'm aware that they've made allegations along those lines, yes. Okay. Do you think the November projections were misleading in any way? No, not at all. And why not? Well, the plan was -- the projections are for the plan, and they contain assumptions. And it was clear in the plan that those assumptions could change. So the value of the assets, which aren't static, does change. The costs aren't static. They do change. The amount of the claims, the denominator, was not static and would change. Okay. And were the -- were the changes in the claims, for example, changes that were all subject to public viewing, as the Court ruled on 3018, as the settlement with HarbourVest was announced? A Well, the plan -- the terms of the plan made clear that the Class 8 claims would -- would be whatever the final amounts of those claims were going to be. We did resolve the claims of HarbourVest and then ultimately the settlement announced today, but in front of -- in front of the world, in front of the Court, with a 9019 motion.

Seery - Direct 167 Okay. We had finished up with some questioning about the gatekeeper and the injunction provision. Do you recall that? Yes, I do. And you had testified as to the reasons why the Debtor was seeking that particular protection. Do you recall that? Yes. In the absence of that protection, does the Debtor have any concerns that interference by Mr. Dondero could adversely impact the timing of the Debtor's plan? Well, that's my opinion and what I testified to before. I think the -- the injunction -- the exculpation, the injunction, and the gatekeeper are really critical and essential elements of this plan, because we have to have the ability, unfettered by litigation, particularly vexatious litigation in multiple jurisdictions, we have to be able to avoid that and be able to focus on monetizing the assets and try to maximize value. Is there a concern that that value would erode if resources and time and attention are diverted to the litigation you've just described? Absolutely. The focus of the team has to be on the assets' monetization, creative ways to get the most value out of those assets, and not on defending itself, trying to paper up some sort of litigation defense against vexatious litigation, and also spending time actually defending

Seery - Direct 168 ourselves in various courts. 1 Q Okay. Last couple of questions. If there was no 2 3 gatekeeper provision in the plan, would you accept appointment 4 as the Claimant Trustee? You broke up. No which provision? 5 6 If there was no gatekeeper provision in the -- in the 7 confirmation order, would you accept the position as Claimant Trustee? 8 9 A No, I wouldn't. Just -- just like when I came on, there were -- there are some pretty essential elements that I 10 mentioned before. One is indemnification. Two is directors 11 12 and officers insurance. And three was a gatekeeper function. I want to make sure that we're not at risk, that I'm not at 13 14 risk, for doing my job. And I think you just said it, but if you were unable to 15 obtain D&O insurance, would you accept the position as 16 Claimant Trustee? 17 18 No, I would not. 19 MR. MORRIS: I have no further questions, Your Honor. 20 THE COURT: All right. So, you went two hours and 34 21 minutes in total with your direct. So we'll now pass the 22 witness for cross. And the Objectors get an aggregate of two 23 hours and 34 minutes. 24 Who's going to go first? MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, Davor Rukavina. I will. 25

And this says that 31 Class 8 creditors rejected 15 and 12 Class 8 creditors accepted the plan, correct? 16 That's correct. 17 And since then, I think we've heard that Mr. Daugherty and 18 maybe two other employees have changed their vote to an 19 accept; is that correct? 20 A That's correct, yes. 21 Okay. Other than three, those three employees that are 22 changing, do you know of any other Class 8 creditors that are 23 changing their votes? 2.4 Mr. Daugherty is not an employee. 25 I apologize. Other than those three Class 8 creditors

Seery - Cross 170 that are changing their votes, do you know of any other ones 1 2 that are changing their votes? 3 No. Okay. You didn't tabulate the ballots, did you? 4 5 No, I did not. Do you have any reason to question the accuracy of this 6 7 ballot summary that's been filed with the Court? No, I do not. 8 9 Okay. You mentioned that many of the people that rejected the plan are former employees who you don't think will 10 11 ultimately have allowed claims, correct? 12 Not ultimately. I said they don't have them now. 13 Okay. Are you aware that the Court ordered that 14 contingent unliquidated claims be allowed to vote in an estimated amount of one dollar? 15 16 I'm aware of that, yes. 17 Okay. All right. Now, no motion to reconsider that order 18 has been filed, correct? 19 A Not to my knowledge. 20 Okay. No objection to these rejecting employees' claims 21 have been filed yet, correct? 22 Correct. 23 Okay. And no motion to strike or designate their vote has 24 been filed as of now, correct?

Well, as the Trustee, you will have some fiduciary duties; you do agree with that? 8 9 That's what I said, yes. Okay. What's your understanding of what those fiduciary 10 11 duties to the beneficiaries of the Claimant Trust will be? 12 I think they'll be -- they are cabined to some degree by 13 the provisions of the agreement, but generally there will be a duty of care and a duty of loyalty. 14 15 Do you feel like you'll have a duty to try to maximize 16 their recoveries? 17 That depends. 18 On what? 19 My judgment on what's the -- if I'm exercising my duty of 20 care and my duty of loyalty. 21 Okay. Now, the Debtor is a registered investment advisor 8 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940; is that correct? That's correct. 10 11 And under that Act, the Debtor owes a fiduciary duty to 12 the funds that it manages and to the investors of those funds, 13 correct? 14 A Clearly to the funds, and generally to the investors more 15 broadly, yes. 16 Okay. And would you agree that that duty compels the 17 Debtor to look for the interests of the funds and the 18 investors of those funds ahead of its own interests? 19 A Generally, but it's a much more fine line than what you're 20 describing. It means you can't -- the manager can't put its 21 own interests in front of the investors and the funds. It 22 doesn't mean that the manager subordinates its interest in the -- to the investors and the funds. 23 MR. RUKAVINA: Well, Mr. Vasek, please pull up the 24 October 20th transcript at Page 233.

So, for that purpose, Mr. Vasek, if you could -- are you 11 12 on Page 233? THE COURT: And just so the record is clear, this is 13 14 from October 2020, not October 2019, which is, I think, what I 15 heard. Continue. 16 MR. MORRIS: Your --MR. RUKAVINA: 22 Q And you see on Line 16, sir, you're asked your understanding, and then you answer, "Okay." Α 18 Was that your testimony on October 20th last? 19 А Yes. 20 Okay. Are you willing to revise your testimony from a few 21 minutes ago that the manager does not have to subordinate its 22 interests to the interests of the investors? 23 No. I think that's very similar. 24 Okay. 25 You left out the part about garbled up top where I said it was nuanced, almost exactly what I just said. On Line 9, I believe, on the prior page.

Q Well, I heard you say a couple of minutes ago, and maybe I misunderstood because of the WebEx nature, that the manager does not have to subordinate its interests to the interests of the investors. Did I misheard you say that a few minutes ago?

A I think you misheard it. I said it's a nuanced analysis, and it's -- it's pretty significant. But the manager does subordinate his general interest and assures that the CLO or any of the investors' interests are paramount, but he doesn't subordinate every single interest.

For example, and I think it's in this testimony, the manager, if the fund isn't doing well, doesn't just have to take his fee and not get paid. He's allowed -- entitled to take his fee. He doesn't subordinate every single interest of his. He doesn't give up his home and his family. So it's -- it's a nuanced analysis. The interests of the manager are subordinated to the interests of the investors and the fund. I don't -- I don't disagree with anything I said there. I think I'm consistent.

Q Okay.

MR. RUKAVINA: You can take that down, Mr. Vasek.

BY MR. RUKAVINA:

Q So, how do you describe, sir, the fiduciary duty that the Debtor owes to the funds that it manages and to the investors in those funds?

MR. MORRIS: Objection to the -- to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion, Your Honor. I just want to make sure we're -- we're asking a witness for his lay views.

THE COURT: Okay. I overrule the objection. He can answer.

THE WITNESS: Yes. As a manager of a fund, the manager is a fiduciary to the fund, and sometimes to the investors, depending on the structure of the fund. Some funds are purposely set up where the investors are actually debtholders, and their interests are much more cabined by the terms of the contract, as opposed to straight equity holders. But the manager has a duty to seek to maximize value of the assets in the best interests of the underlying -- of the fund and the underlying investors, to the extent that it can, within the confines and structure of the fund.

- 17 | BY MR. RUKAVINA:
  - Q Okay. And these duties as you just described them, they would apply to the Reorganized Debtor, correct?
  - A They would apply to the Reorganized Debtor to the extent that it's a manager for a fund, not, for example, with respect to necessarily interests -- the inchoate interests that we talked about earlier.
- Q Sure. And I apologize, I meant just for the fund. And if the manager, the Reorganized Debtor, breaches those duties, 184 Seery - Cross then it's possible that there's going to be liability, 1 2 correct? 3 It's possible. 4 Okay.         And the Debtor is trying to reduce some of its assets to money, like the promissory notes, to benefit its creditors, 14

    correct?
15
    A Yes.
16
        Okay. And correct me if I'm wrong, but the Committee has 17 filed various claims and causes of action against Mr. Dondero, 18
    correct?
19
         They -- they've filed some. I haven't -- I haven't looked 20 at their (indecipherable) closely, but -- 21
         Okay.
        -- some are preserved in the case.
22
23
        You understand -- 24
        In the plan. I'm sorry.
25
        You understand that the Committee is doing that for the 186 Seery - Cross benefit of the estate, correct? 1 2 Yes. And you understand that they're also doing that for the 3 4 benefit of creditors, correct? 5 Yes. 6 Okay. And under the plan, just so that I'm clear, those 7 claims that the Committee has asserted will be preserved and will vest in either the Claimant Trust or the Litigation Sub-8 Trust, correct? 10 Yes. 11 Okay. And under the plan, the Reorganized Debtor would 12 continue to manage its assets, correct? 13 Yes. 14 And it would continue to manage the Funds and the CLOs, 15 correct? 16 Yes. 17 And the Claimant Trust would attempt to liquidate and distribute to its beneficiaries the assets that are 18 19 transferred to it, correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Okay. And you mentioned that the Claimant Trust will have 22 an Oversight Board comprised of five members, right? 23 Yes. 24 And four of them will be the people that are currently on the Committee, right?

- 1 | A Yes.
- 2 | Q And the fifth is David Pauker, and I think you mentioned
- 3 | that he's independent. David Pauker is the fifth member,
- 4 | right?
- 5 A Yes.
- 6 Q Who -- who is he?
- 7 | A David Pauker is a very well-known professional in the
- 8 | restructuring world. He's a long-time financial advisor in --
- 9 | in reorganizations. He's served on numerous boards in
- 10 | restructuring -- restructurings.
- 11 | Q Okay. So, other than a different corporate structure and
- 12 | the Claimant Trust, the monetization of assets for the benefit
- 13 | of creditors would continue post-confirmation as now, correct?
- 14 | A I -- I believe so. I'm not exactly sure what you asked
- 15 | there.
- 16 | Q No one is putting in any new money under the plan, are
- 17 | they?
- 18 | A No. No.
- 19 | Q Okay. There's no exit financing contingent on the plan
- 20 | being confirmed, right?
- 21 | A You mean no exit -- the plan is not contingent on exit
- 22 | financing. I think you just mixed up your -- your financing
- 23 | and your plan.
- 24 | Q I apologize. There's no exit financing in place today,
- 25 | correct?

- 1 | A No.
- 2 | Q Okay. So, post-confirmation, you are basically going to
- 3 continue managing the CLOs and funds and trying to monetize
- 4 | assets for creditors the same as you are today, correct?
- 5 A Similar, yes.
- 6  $\parallel$  Q Okay. And just like the Committee has some oversight role
- 7 | in the case, the members of the Oversight Board will have some
- 8 | oversight role post-confirmation, correct?
- 9 | A Yes.
- 10 | Q Okay. You don't need anything in the plan itself to
- 11 | enable you to continue managing the Debtor and its assets,
- 12 || correct?
- 13 | A I don't need anything in the plan?
- 14 | Q Correct.
- 15 | A I don't -- I don't understand the question. Can you
- 16 | rephrase it?
- 17 | Q Well, you are managing the Debtor and its assets today,
- 18 | correct?
- 19 | A Yes.
- 20 | Q Okay. Nothing in the plan is going to change that,
- 21 | correct?
- 22 | A Well, it's going to change it a lot.
- 23 | Q Okay. Well, with respect to you managing the Funds and
- 24 | the CLOs, you don't need anything in the plan that you don't
- 25 | have today to keep managing them, do you?

A No. The Debtor manages them, and I will -- I'm the CEO and I'll be in a similar position with a different team.

- 3 Q Okay. And I believe you told me that you expect the
- 4 Debtor to administer the CLOs for two or three years, maybe?
- 5 A However long it takes, but we expect -- our projections
- 6 | are that we'd be able to monetize most of the assets within
- 7 | two years.
- 8 0 Does that include the CLOs?
- 9 A It does, yes.
- 10 | Q Okay. Now, you're going to be the person for the
- 11 Reorganized Debtor in charge of managing the CLOs, correct?
- 12 | A I'll be the person responsible for managing the
- 13 | Reorganized Debtor. The Reorganized Debtor will be the
- 14 | manager of the CLOs.
- 15 | Q Okay. But the buck will stop with you at the Reorganized
- 16 | Debtor, right?
- 17 | A Yes.
- 18 || Q Okay. You're going to have a team of employees and
- 19 | outside professionals helping you, but ultimately, on behalf
- 20 | of the Reorganized Debtor, you're going to be the one in
- 21 | charge of managing the CLOs, correct?
- 22 | A Yes.
- 23  $\parallel$  Q Okay. That means that you'll also be making decisions as
- 24 | to when to sell assets of the CLOs, correct?
- 25 | A Yes.

190 Seery - Cross Okay. And to be clear, the CLOs, they own their own 1 2 assets, whatever they are, and the Debtor just manages those 3 assets, right? 4 Correct. 5 The Debtor doesn't directly own those assets, right? 6 7 And currently there's more than one billion dollars in CLO assets that the Debtor manages? 8 9 Α Approximately. Yeah. And the Debtor receives fees for its services, 10 11 correct? 12 Yes. Can you generally describe how the amount of those fees is 13 14 calculated and paid, if you have an understanding? 15 How the fees are calculated and paid? 16 Yes, sir. 17 It's a percentage of the assets. 18 Assets administered or assets sold in any given time 19 period? 20 Administered. 21 Okay. So the sale of CLO assets does not affect the fees 22 that the Reorganized Debtor would receive under these 23 agreements? 24 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the question. 25 THE COURT: Over --

191 Seery - Cross THE WITNESS: That's not correct. 1 THE COURT: Overruled. 2 3 BY MR. RUKAVINA: 4 Okay. What is not correct about that? 5 When you sell the assets, the amount administered shrinks, 6 so you have less fees. 7 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, the answer cut out at the very end. You have less--? 8 9 THE WITNESS: Fees. BY MR. RUKAVINA: 10 11 Fees? I understand. Okay. So are you saying that there 12 is a disincentive to the Reorganized Debtor to sell assets in 13 the CLOs? 14 A No. 15 Okay. Is there an incentive to the Reorganized Debtor to 16 sell assets in the CLOs? 17 To do their job correctly, yes. 18 Okay. And the Debtor wishes to assume those contracts 19 because the Debtor will get those fees going forward and 20 there'll be a profit, even after the expenses of servicing 21 those contracts are taken out, correct? 22 They are profitable. That's one of the reasons that we're 23 assuming, yes. 24 Okay. Now, over my objection, you testified that the CLOs have agreed to the assumption of these contracts, right?

192 Seery - Cross Yes. 1 Α 2 Okay. Is there anything in the record other than your 3 testimony here today demonstrating that? 4 I believe there is, yes. 5 What do you believe there is in the record other than your 6 testimony? 7 I believe we filed a notice of assumption. Okay. My question is a little bit different. You 8 testified that the CLOs, over my objection, have agreed to the assumption. You did testify so, right? 10 11 Yes. 12 Okay. What is there in the record, sir, from the CLOs 13 confirming that? You mean today's record? 14 15 Yes, sir. 16 I'm the only one who's testified so far. 17 Okay. Are you aware of anything in the exhibits that 18 would confirm your testimony?

- 19 A Not that I know of.
- 20 | Q Has there been an agreement with the CLOs that's been
- 21 | reduced to writing?
- 22 | A Yes.
- 23 | Q So there is a written agreement with the CLOs providing
- 24 | for assumption?
- 25 | A Yes.

Seery - Cross 193 A signed, written agreement? 1 Q No, it's -- it's email. 2 Okay. When was this email agreement reached? 3 Within the last couple weeks. There's a number of back 4 5 and forths where that was agreed to, and I believe we filed a 6 notice of assumption. 7 MR. RUKAVINA: Mr. Vasek, if you will please pull up Mr. Seery's January 29th deposition. 8 BY MR. RUKAVINA: Mr. Seery, you remember me deposing you last Friday, 10 11 correct? 12 Yes. 13 And you remember me asking you if there was a written agreement in place with the CLOs? 14 I don't recall specifically. 15 16 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. Mr. Vasek, if you would please 17 scroll to that. Okay. Stop there. 18 BY MR. RUKAVINA: 19 Sir, you'll recall I also deposed you January 20th, right? 20 A Yes. 21 Okay. And do you remember that we had some discussion 22 regarding whether the CLOs would consent or not? 23 Yes. 24 Okay. And do you remember telling me something like that like you think that they will and that's still in the works on

Seery - Cross 194 January 20th? 1 I don't recall specifically, but if you say that's what it 2 3 says. 4 Q Okay. Well, here I'm asking you on January 29th, Line 17, 5 "I asked you before and you didn't have anything in writing by then, so let me ask now. As of today, do you have anything in 6 7 writing from the CLOs consenting to the assumption of those management agreements?" I'm sorry. Contracts. Answer, "I 8 don't believe that I do. It could be on my email I opened. I don't recall." 10 11 MR. RUKAVINA: Scroll down, Mr. Vasek. BY MR. RUKAVINA: 12 13 Okay. Then I ask, "Do you have an understanding of 14 whether those CLOs have consented in writing to the assumption 15 of the management agreements?" And you answer, "I believe 16 they have. The actual final docs haven't been completed, but 17 I believe they have agreed in writing, yes." 18 Then I ask --MR. RUKAVINA: Scroll down a little bit more. 19 20 BY MR. RUKAVINA: 21 I ask, "Do you expect the final docs to be completed 22 before Tuesday's confirmation hearing?" Answer, "I don't know whether they will be done by Tuesday." 23 2.4 Did I read all of that correctly, sir? 25 Other than your misstatement. The word was "unopened."

195 Seery - Cross Thank you. So, let me ask you again today. As of today, 1 2 is there a written agreement that has been signed by the parties providing for the assumption of the CLO agreements? 3 4 When phrased the way you did, is it signed by the parties, 5 no. 6 Okay. 7 MR. RUKAVINA: You can take that down, Mr. Vasek. BY MR. RUKAVINA: 8 9 I think -- I'm not sure if you quantified this earlier, but it might help. I believe that the Reorganized Debtor 10 11 projects that it will generate revenue of $8.269 million post-12 reorganization from managing the CLO contracts, correct? A It's in that neighborhood. I did not testify to that 13 14 earlier. 15 That's what I meant. And when I asked you at deposition, you were able to give me an estimate of how much it would cost 16 17 to generate that revenue, correct? 18 I was not? 19 You were? I'm sorry. Let me --20 Did you say I wasn't or I was? 21 Let me -- I apologize. Let me ask again. I talk too fast 22 and I have an accent. You have been able to give an estimate 23 of how much the Reorganized Debtor will expend to generate 24 that revenue, correct? 25 Yes.

196 Seery - Cross Okay. Do you remember what your estimate is? 1 I -- I think it was around $2 million a year. It was a 2 portion of our employees plus the contracts. 3 4 Okay. So, over the life of the projection at $8.2 million, do you remember that you projected costs of about 5 6 $3.5 to $4 million to generate that revenue? 7 If -- if you are representing that to me, I'd accept it. Yes, that sounds about right. 8 9 Well, suffice it to say you're projecting at least $4 million in net profit over the next two years for the 10 11 Reorganized Debtor from managing the CLO agreements, correct? 12 Net profit is not a fair, fair way to analyze it, no. Okay. Are you projecting any profit for the Reorganized 13 14 Debtor from managing the CLO agreements post-confirmation? 15 Yes. 16 Okay. Do you have an estimate of what that profit is? 17 General overview are the contracts are profitable to about 18 the tune of $4 million over that period.

Q Okay. Thank you. If the Reorganized Debtor makes a profit post-confirmation, is it fair to say that that would then be dividended up or distributed up to the partners, ultimately to the Claimant Trust?

Q Okay. So, if the Reorganized Debtor makes a profit postconfirmation, where does that profit go?

197 Seery - Cross The Reorganized Debtor -- what kind of profit? I don't 1 understand your question. 2 Q Okay. I apologize if I'm being too simplistic about it. 3 4 If a business, after it takes account of its expenses to 5 generate revenue, has any money left over, would that be 6 profit to you? 7 Yes. Okay. Do you think that the Reorganized Debtor, post-8 confirmation, will make a profit? I don't know. 10 Okay. Do you think that the Reorganized Debtor, post-11 12 confirmation, will lose money? I think there will be costs, and the costs will exceed the 13 -- the amount that it generates on an income basis, yes. 14 15 Q Okay. Thank you. 16 MR. RUKAVINA: Mr. Vasek, if you'll please pull up 17 the plan, the injunctions, and releases. 9F. 18 (Pause.) 19 BY MR. RUKAVINA: 20 Q I apologize, Mr. Seery. 21 MR. RUKAVINA: So, Mr. Vasek, if you'll go to the 22 bottom of the Page 51. Stop there. BY MR. RUKAVINA: 23 24 Q So, I'm going to read just the first couple sentences here, Mr. Seery, if you'll read it along with me. Subject --

this is the bottom paragraph: Subject in all respects to Article 12(b), no enjoined party may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any protected party that arose or arises from or is related to the Chapter

11 case, the negotiation of the plan, the administration of the plan, or property to be distributed under the plan, the wind-down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor.

I'd like to stop there. Do you see that clause there, Mr. Seery, talking about the wind-down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor? Do you see that, sir?

A Yes.

2.4

- Q Okay. Do I understand correctly that this provision we've just read means that, upon the assumption of these CLO management agreements, if the counterparties to those agreements want to take any action against the Reorganized Debtor, they first have to go through this channeling injunction?
- A I believe that's what it says, yes.
- Q Okay. Because the wind-down of the business of the Reorganized Debtor will include the management of these CLO portfolio management agreements, correct?
- 22 | A Yes.
  - Q Okay. As well as the management of various funds that the Debtor owns, correct?
  - A Yes.

- 1 | Q Okay. And would you agree with me that the new general
- 2 | partner, New GP, LLC, is also a protected party under the
- 3 | plan?
- 4 | A I assume it is. I don't recall specifically.
- 5 | Q I believe you discussed to some degree postpetition
- 6 | losses. I'd like to visit a little bit about those. Since
- 7 | January 9th, 2020, Mr. Dondero was not an officer of the
- 8 | Debtor, correct?
- 9 | A Correct.
- 10 | Q And since January 9th, 2020, he was no longer a director
- 11 | of Strand, correct?
- 12 | A That's correct.
- 13 | Q Since January 9th, 2020, until he was asked to resign, he
- 14 | was an employee, correct?
- 15 | A Yes.
- 16 | Q And about -- I'm trying to remember. About when did he
- 17 | resign? October something of 2020? Do you remember?
- 18 A I don't recall.
- 19 | Q Okay. Do you recall if it was in October 2020?
- 20 A It was in the fall.
- 21 | Q Okay. And he resigned because the independent board asked
- 22 | him to resign, correct?
- 23 | A Yes.
- 24 | Q Okay. And you mentioned that the estate has had a
- 25 postpetition drop in the value of its assets and the assets

- 1 | that it manages. Right?
- $2 \parallel A$  I believe I went through the estate's assets. The only
- 3 | asset that wasn't a direct estate asset was the hundred
- 4 | percent control of Select Equity Fund. I didn't talk about
- 5 | the Fund assets.
- $6 \parallel Q$  Okay. Do you recall that the disclosure statement that
- 7 | the Court approved states that, postpetition, there was a drop
- 8 from approximately $566 million to $328 million in the value
- 9 of Debtor assets and assets under Debtor management?
- 10 | A Yes. That's the $200 million I walked through earlier.
- 11 | Q Okay. And I believe you mentioned some of it was due to
- 12 | the pandemic, right?
- 13 A It certainly impacted the markets. The pandemic didn't
- 14 | cause a specific loss. It impacted the markets and the
- 15 | ability to work within those markets.
- 16 | Q But you also believe that Mr. Dondero was responsible for
- 17 | something like a hundred million dollars of these losses,
- 18 | right?
- 19 | A Probably more.
- 20 | Q Okay. Mr. Dondero is not being released or exculpated for
- 21 | that, is he?
- 22 | A No.
- 23 | Q And while Mr. Dondero was an employee during the period of
- 24 | these losses, he answered to you as CEO and CRO, correct?
- 25 A Not during that period. I wasn't (audio gap) until later.

Seery - Cross 201 I'm sorry. As of January 9th, 2020, were you the CEO of 1 2 the Debtor? 3 No. When did you become the CEO of the Debtor? 4 5 I believe the order was July 9th, retroactive to a date in 6 March. 7 July 9th, 2020? Correct. 8 9 Okay. And when did you become the CRO of the Debtor? At the same time. 10 11 Okay. So, between January and July 2020, you were one of 12 the independent directors, correct? 13 Yes. 14 Okay. So, during that period of time, would Mr. Dondero 15 have answered to that independent board? 16 Yes. 17 Okay. Now, if someone alleges that that independent board has any liability on account of Mr. Dondero's losses, that's 18 19 released under this plan, isn't it? 20 Yes. 21 Okay. And if someone alleges that Strand has any 22 liability on account of Mr. Dondero's losses, that's released 23 under this plan, correct?

Okay. And if someone believes that the Debtor -- that the way that the Debtor has managed the CLOs or its funds postpetition gives rise to a cause of action in negligence, that's also released and exculpated in the plan, correct?

Yes.

- 4 A I believe it would be. I'm not positive, but I believe it 5 would be.
- Q Well, let's be clear. The plan does not release or exculpate you or Strand or the board for willful misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, or criminal conduct, correct?
- 9 A No, it does not.
- Q Okay. And I'm not, just so we're clear, I'm not alleging that, okay? So I want the judge to understand I'm not alleging that. But the plan does release and exculpate for
- 13 | negligence, right?
- 14 | A Yes.

- Q Okay. Where do you have an understanding a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty lies on the spectrum of negligence all the way to criminal conduct?
- 18 A It's -- it's not -- generally not criminal, although I 19 suppose that breach of fiduciary duty could be criminal.
- Typically, it's negligence, and that you would breach a duty for either duty of care, duty of loyalty. But it could slide to willful. And probably most of the instances where they come up are where someone has done something willfully or
- 24 grossly negligent.
- 25 | Q Okay. But -- and I would agree with you. But there are
